Equi Sponsors Contest For Shutterbugs

CLUB PEOPLE PURSUE INTERESTS

The Spanish club, pictured below on the left, is advised by Mrs. Crites, a new addition to Foothill. The Spanish club studied the culture of Mexico. The trackettes, as pictured below on the right, kept scores and held strings for the track runners. Their time and all of their efforts were greatly appreciated by coach Jake.

THE CANDIDATE

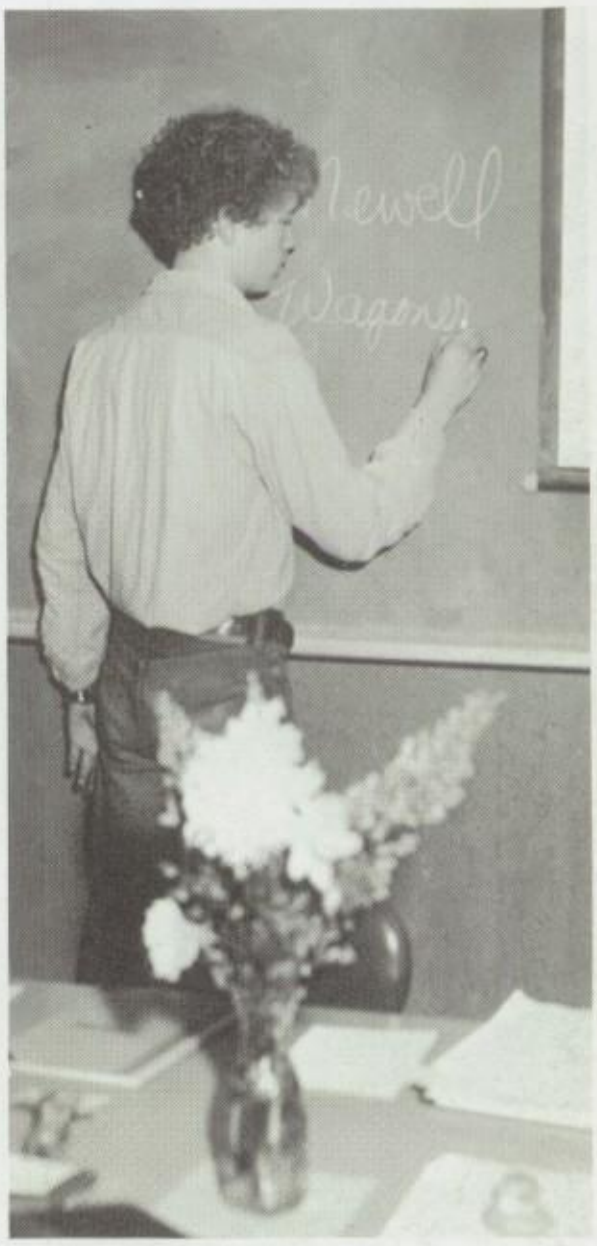
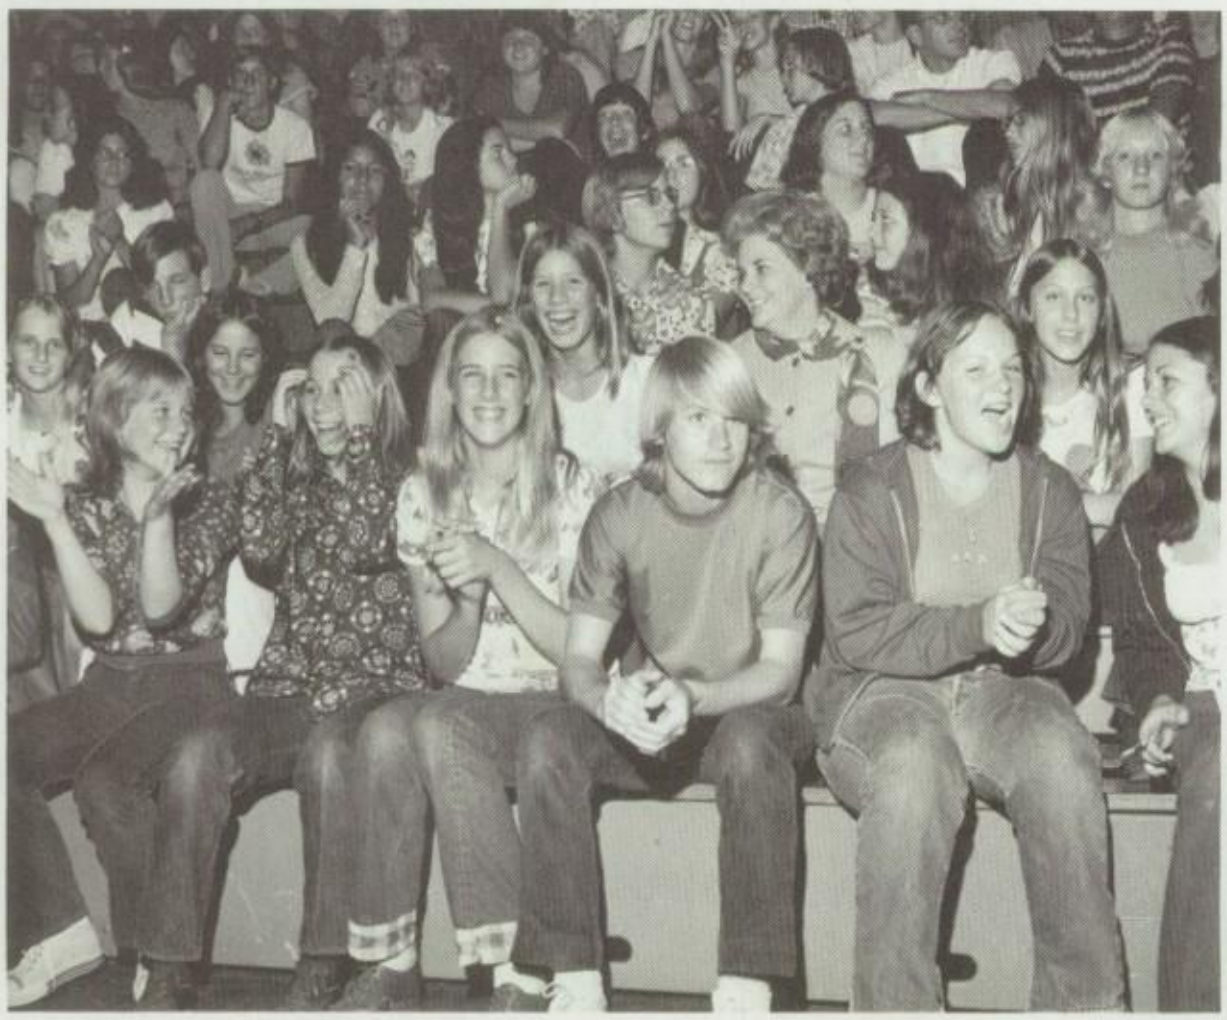
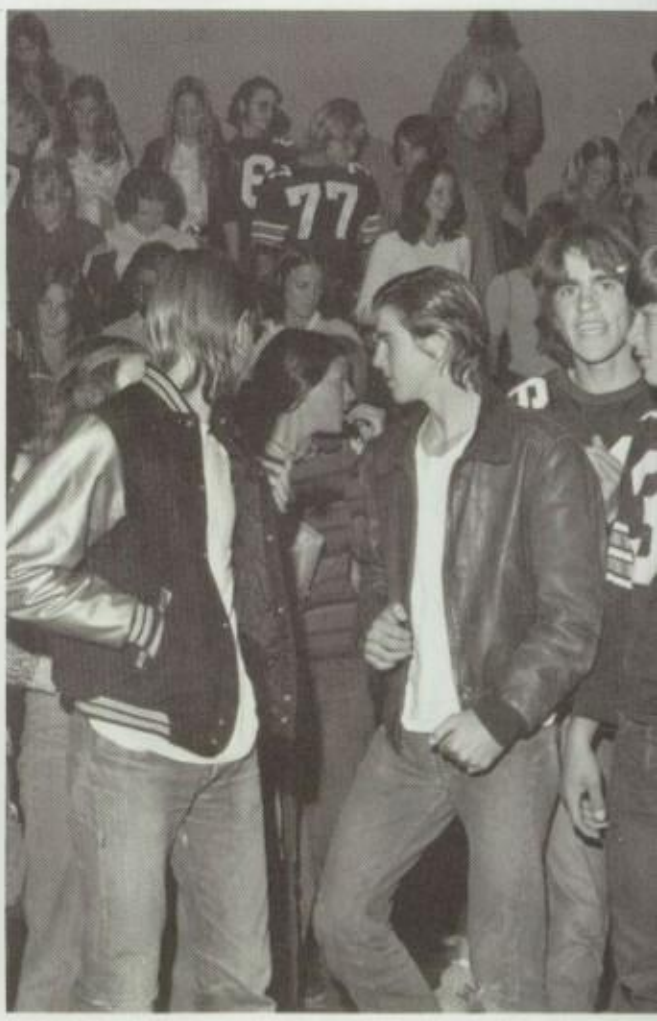
CSF IN ACTION



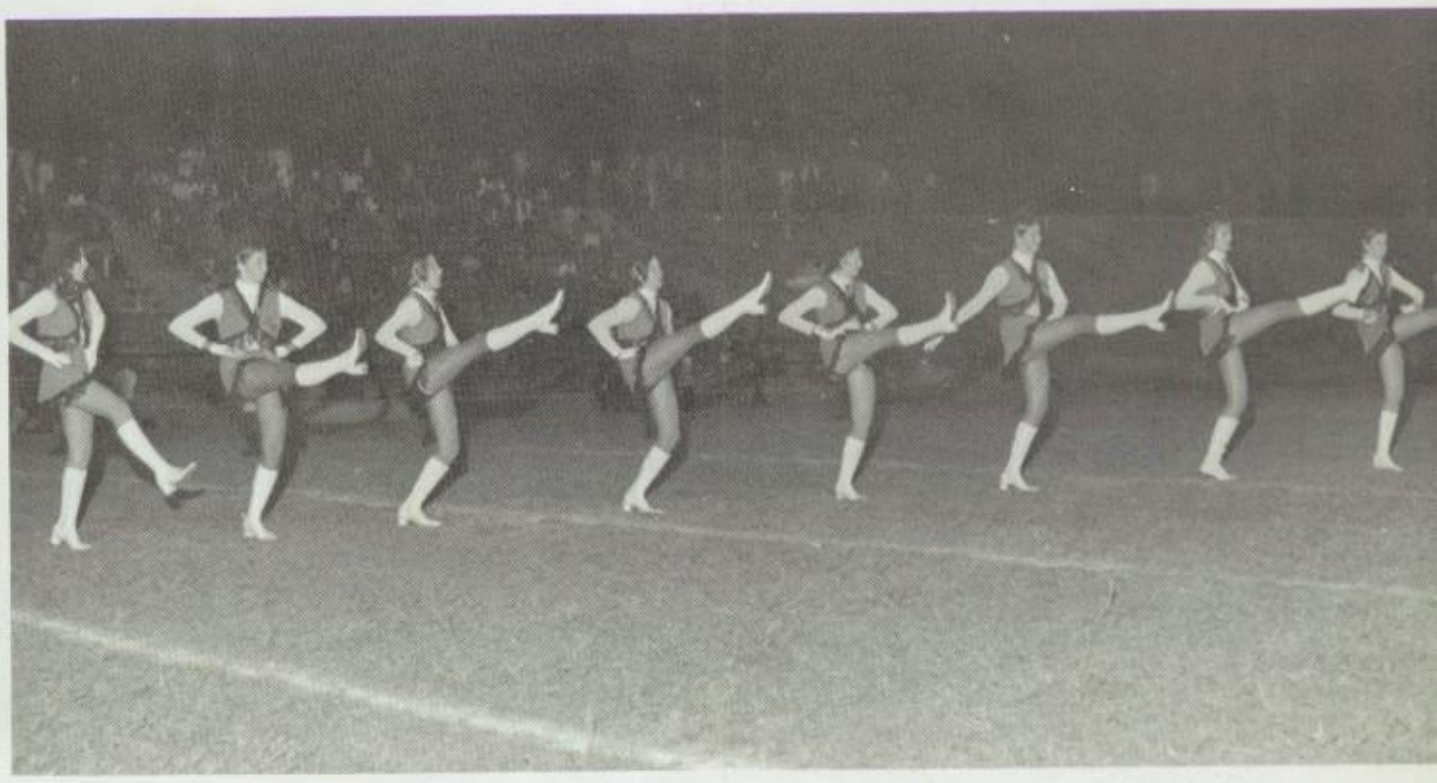
Foothill's Games And Rallies Evoke Esprit de Corps

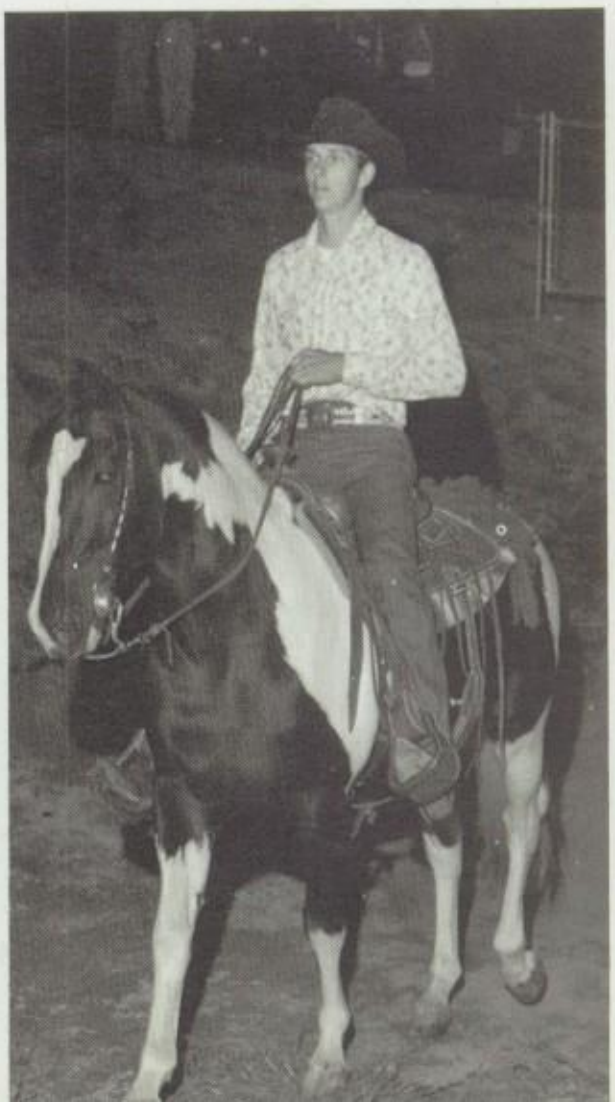




Halftime Entertainment!

The quality of halftime entertainment has decreased in the past few years due to the fact that we no longer have a marching band, flag twirlers, or baton twirles. Upper left, Jen Eppinette helps the cheerleaders out with a cheer. Upper right, the mustangettes do one of their routines. Lower left, Mr. Kamilos leads the pep band in a little tune. Lower right, Bob rides a horse during halftime. The horse came from Knm ranch and was twice a national champion in horse showing.





Rally Supports Spirit Leaders

Mascots Arouse Enthusiasm

Spirited Co-eds Spark Participation

The varsity cheerleaders worked hard this year and made it a good year for all of us. As shown in this group picture, they never felt the need to be "too serious". Pictured is Gayla Fanin on the top; Kathy Kennedy; Sue Mitchell; Renee Pearl; and head cheer, Pam Sylvestre, up front. The 1974-75 cheerleaders were a fine group of girls.

Songleaders Ignite Spirit

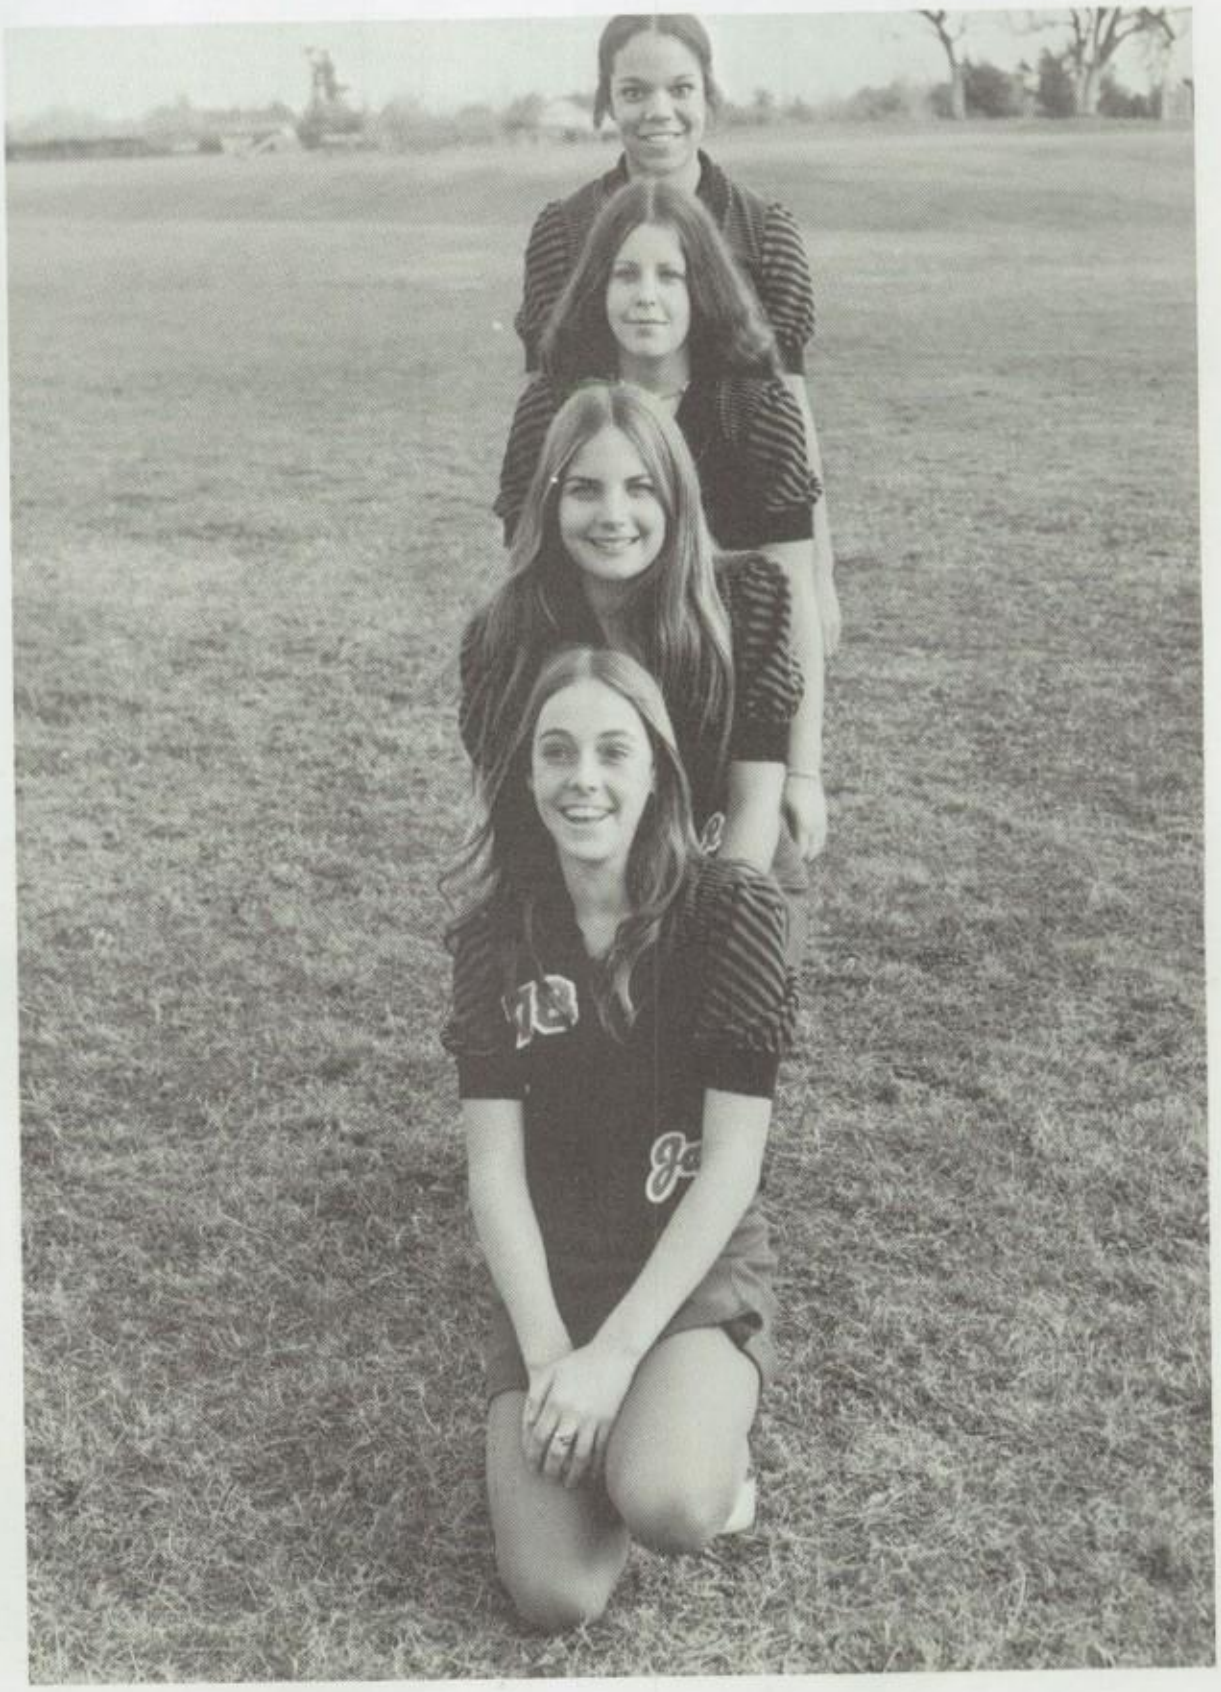
SOPHOMORE SPIRIT

This year's Junior Varsity cheerleaders, left to right, Pam Randle, Diane Baker, Liz Stroup, and Lori Carter, have put together a year full of enthusiasm, excitement and spirit for the Junior Varsity teams. To be a successful cheerleading squad, such as the J.V. cheerleaders have proved to be, many practices, fund-raising events, patience, and skill are needed. These spirit-leaders can certainly take some credit for making it an exciting year for the sophomores.

FROSH CHEER ON!!

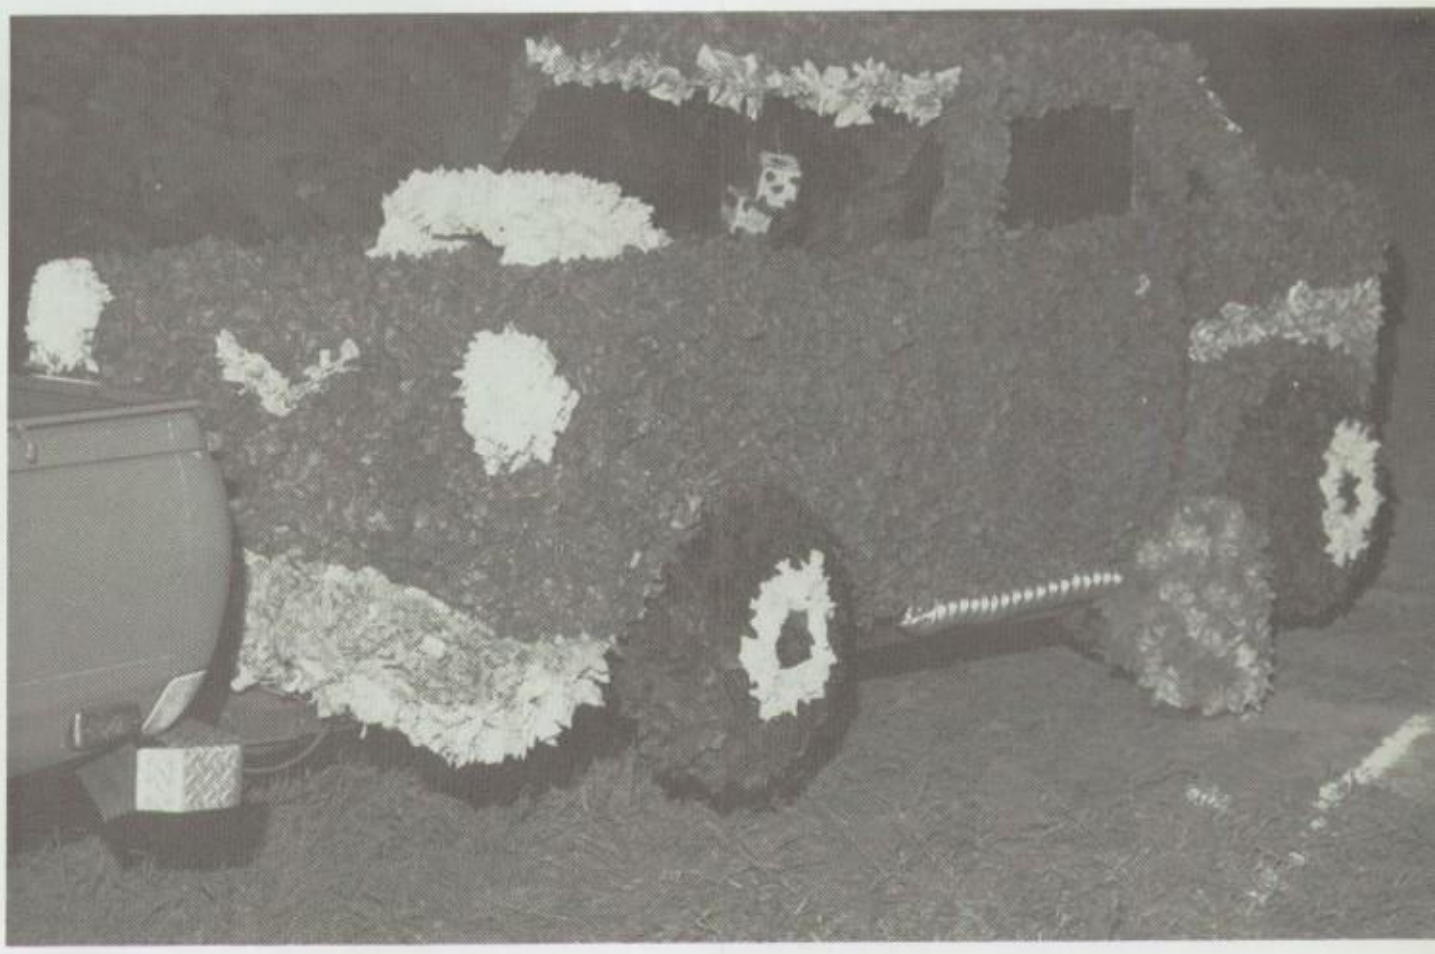
The freshmen cheerleaders showed exuberance, pep, and vitality in cheering the team on during the year. If the freshmen continue in this tradition, we shall be assured many victories in the future.

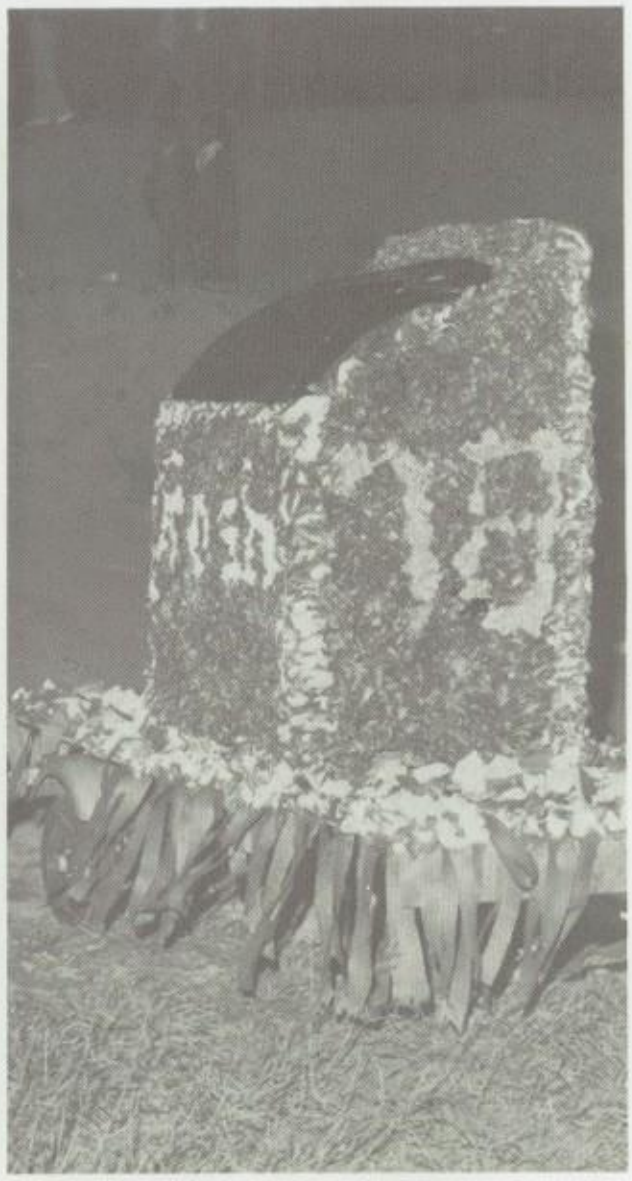


On the left, top to bottom, the freshmen cheerleaders are: Jackie Sylvestre, head; Robin Backus; Ericka James; and Jenny Weber.

Homecoming 1974

Dad, can I borrow the car?





Homecoming this year was more successful than it has been in years before. Both our Junior Varsity and Varsity teams defeated Highlands. Opposite page, upper left, the rally club swings to the music of the band. Below, the royalty is introduced to the audience. Upper left, the Senior's float was one of originality. The oxfords moved forward one at a time, as though they were walking. The Junior's float, a dark-blue '57 Chevy took the trophy, as shown opposite page, upper right. The Sophomore's made an ice cream float, otherwise known as "Blazing Soda." the freshman's entry was a juke box.

Homecoming Dance was held October 11 in the multipurpose room. We had a good turnout for the first dance of the year. Kathy Kennedy and her Court were among the many people who "thrilled" to the music of the band. Upper left, Sandy Gill dances with a friend. Upper right, the Rutabega Boogie Band kept everybody "rocking steady." Lower left, Pam Jerue is looking at her newly purchased ticket. Lower right Karin Case dances with Tim Sennett. Opp. page, are the 1974 Homecoming Royalty. This years queen was Kathy Kennedy. Her princesses were Kris Stout and Debbie Spradlin. Junior princess was Karin Case. Sophomore princess was Liz Stroup; frosh, Linda Bussey.

QUEEN OF THE STARDUST

-ER- FOOTHILL BALLROOM

ASSEMBLY "MOVES ON"

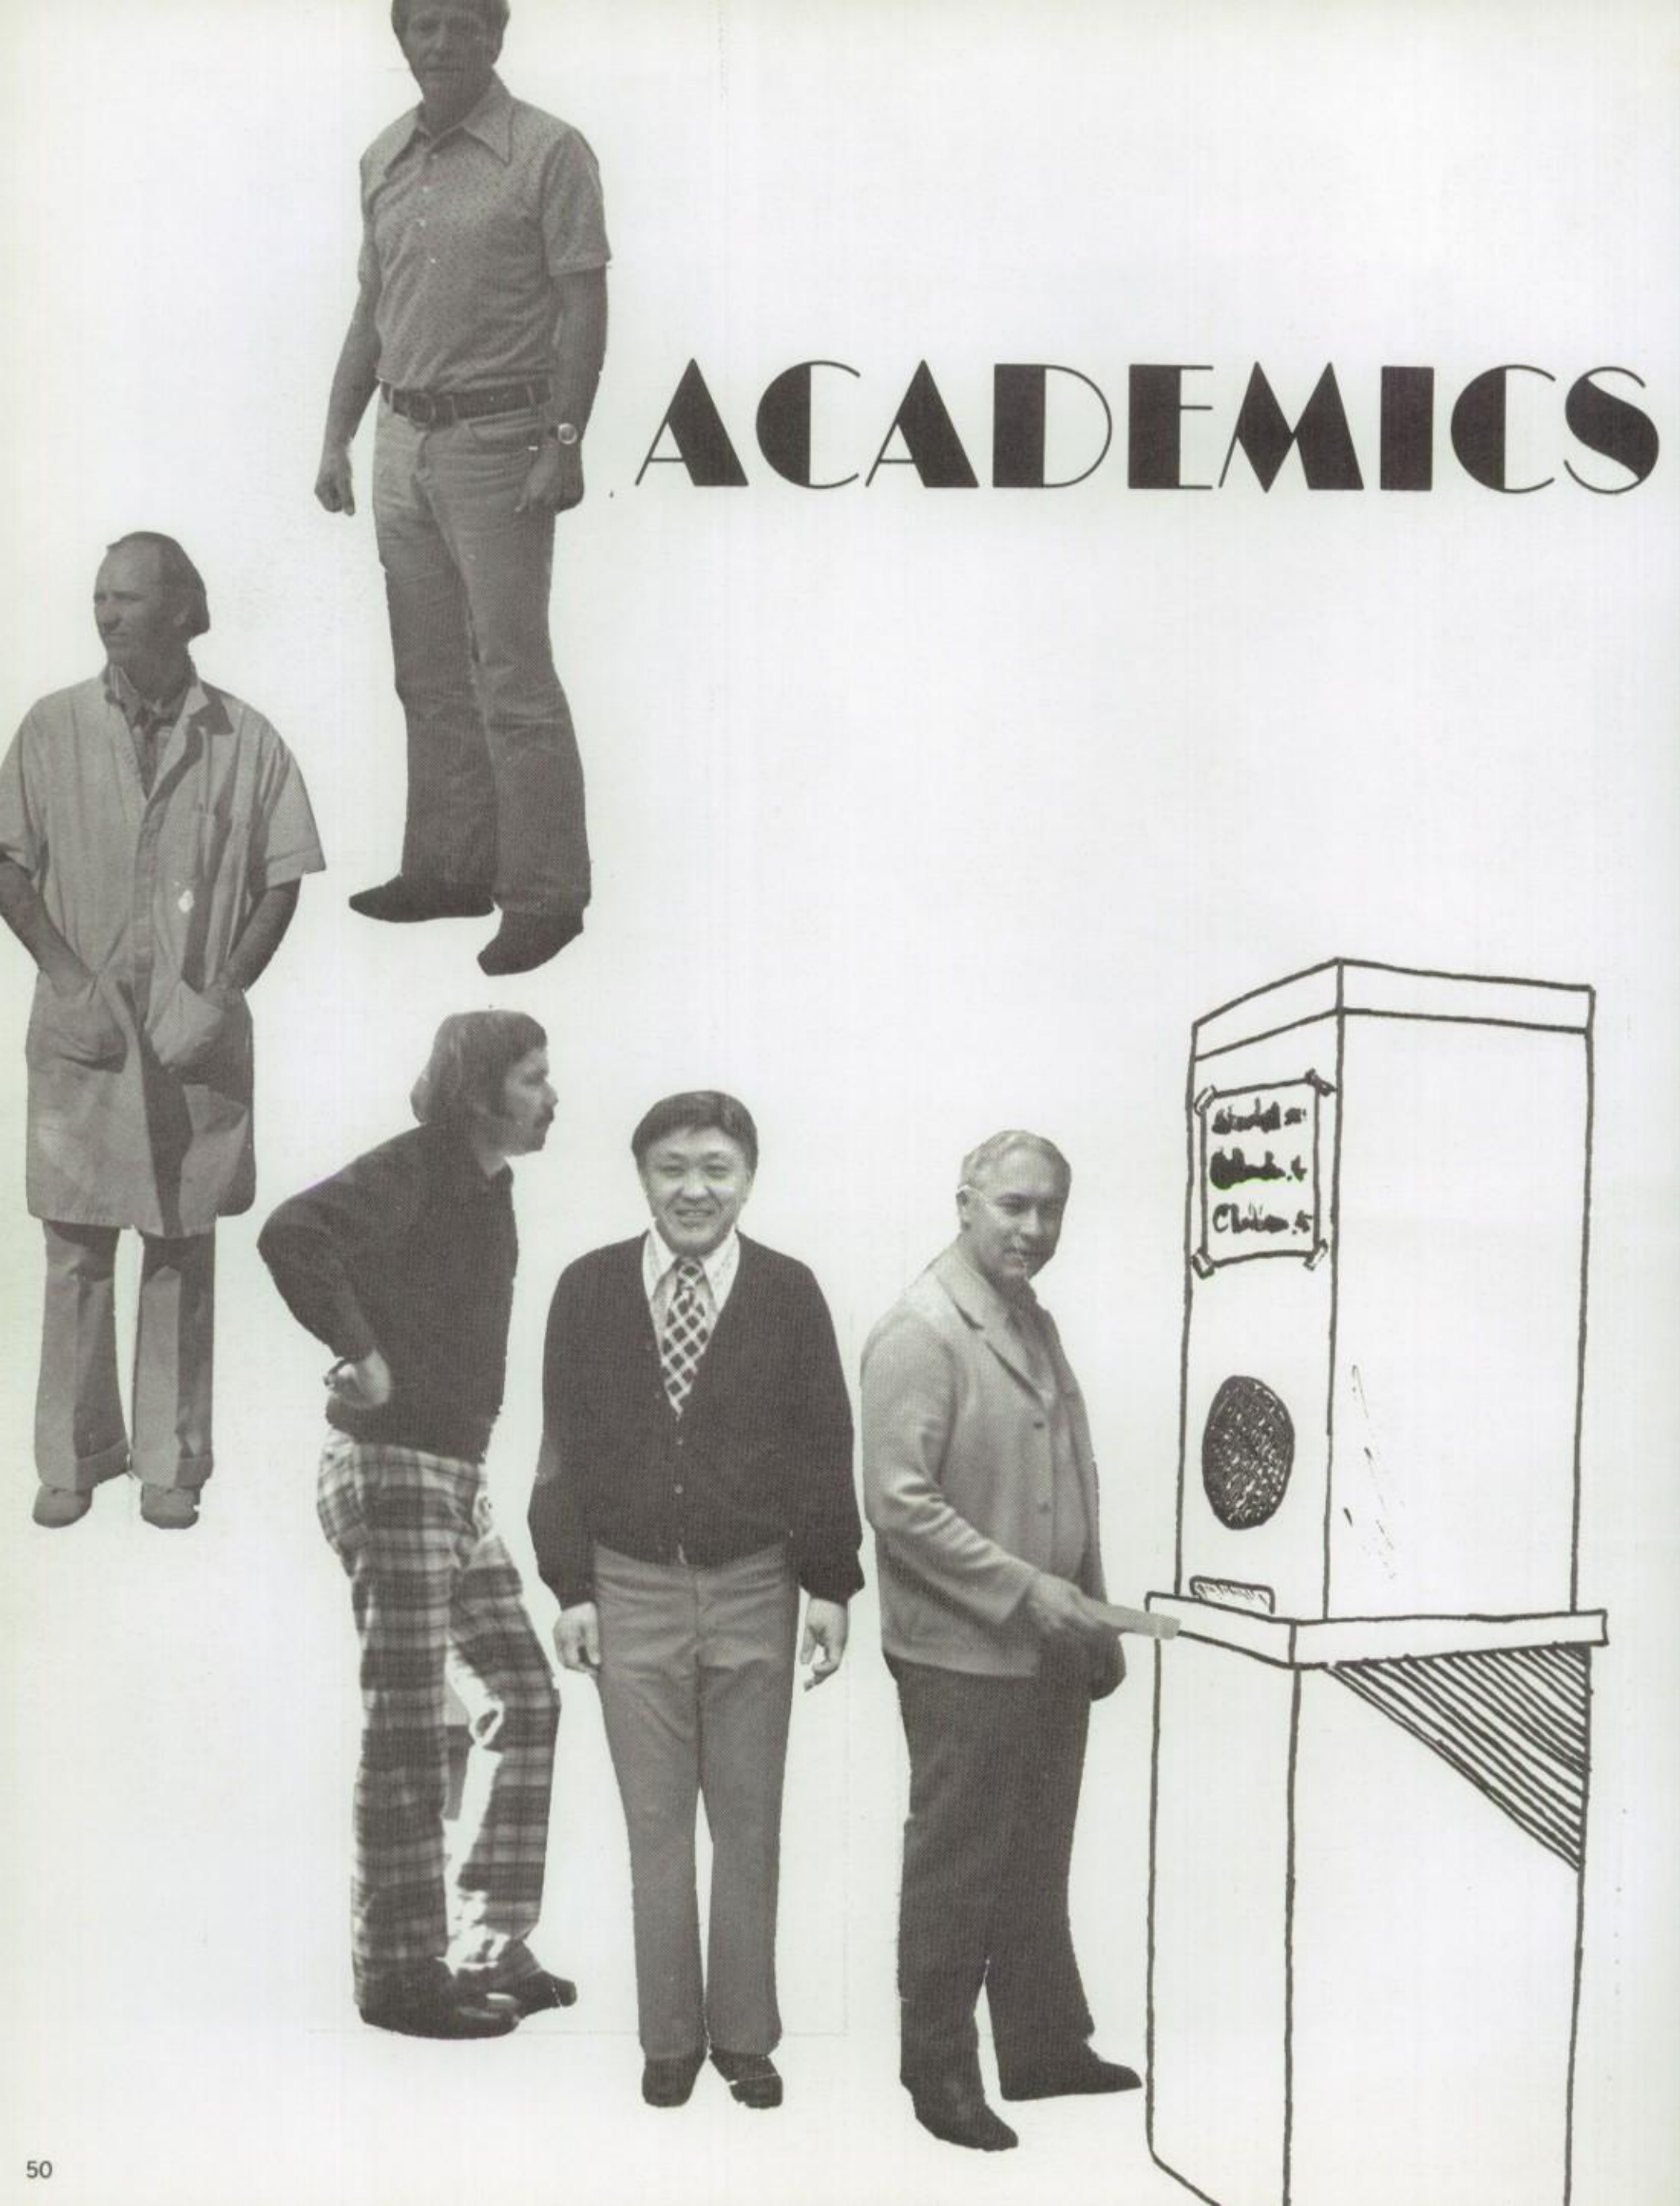
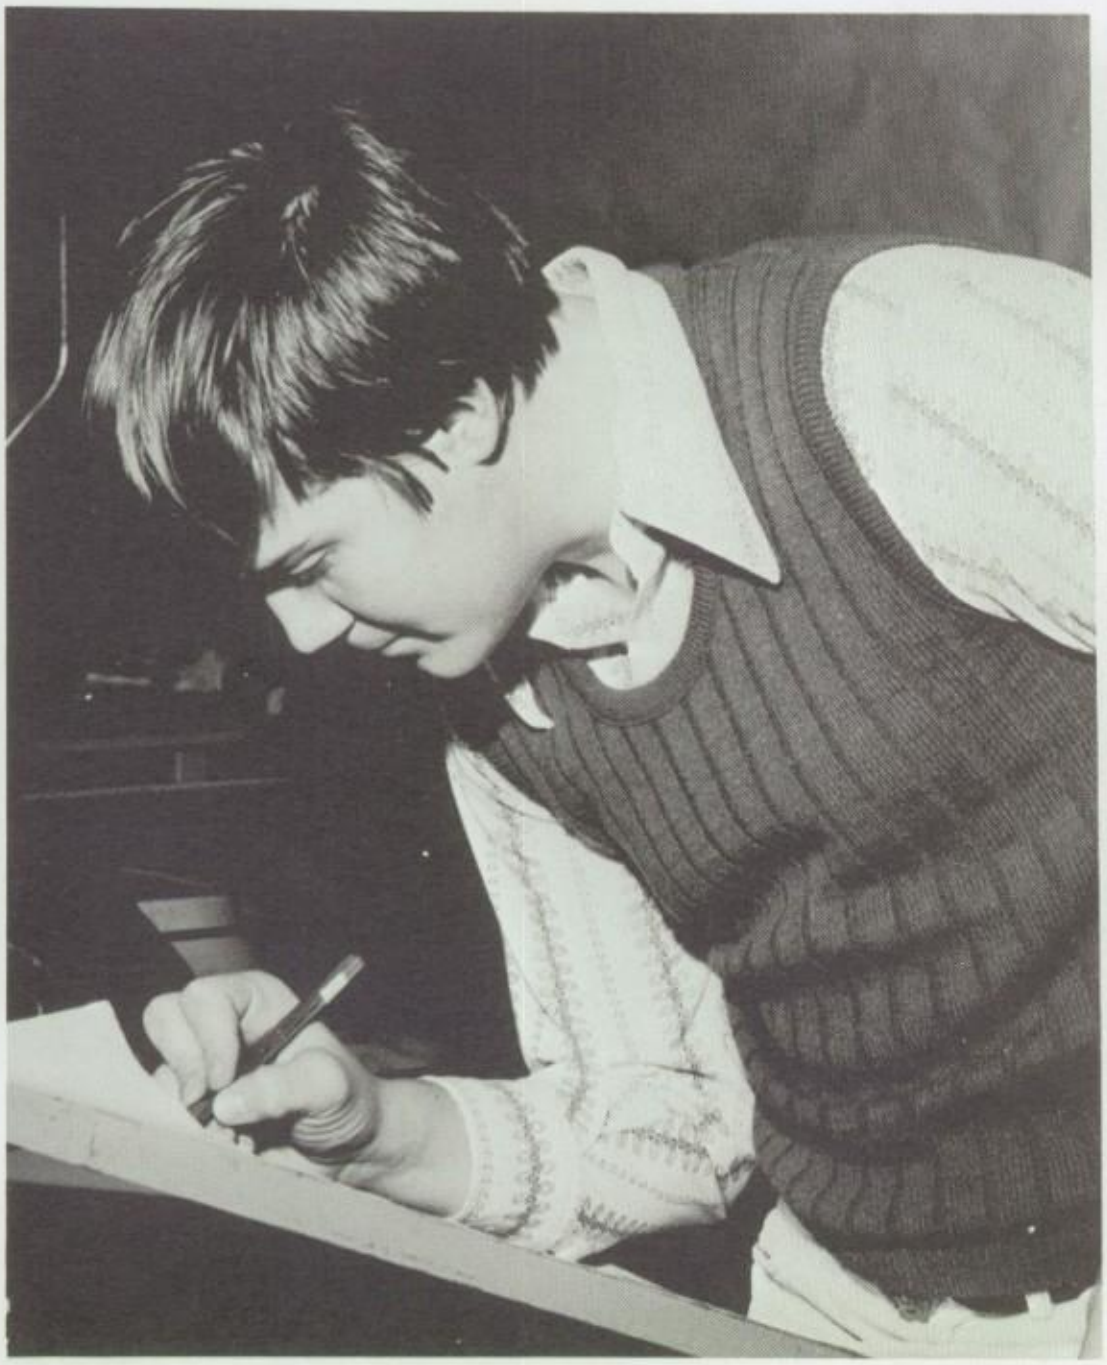
ACADEMICS





ALL THE KING'S MEN (AND WOMEN)

In charge of keeping records of Foothill's average daily attendance are Mrs. Christina McCoy and Mrs. Frances Brill. Their job is to account for all of the approximately 1735 students attending Foothill High School.

Mrs. Irene Hulse, the school nurse takes care of most of our wounded students, but occasionally she has to refer them to a doctor or hospital.

Mrs. Mary Bolton, the principal's secretary, keeps all of Mr. "Dick" Kollenborn's appointments and takes care of the finances while Mrs. Carol Posehn, the registrar, takes care of enrolling and dropping students as well as keeping track of the students transcripts.

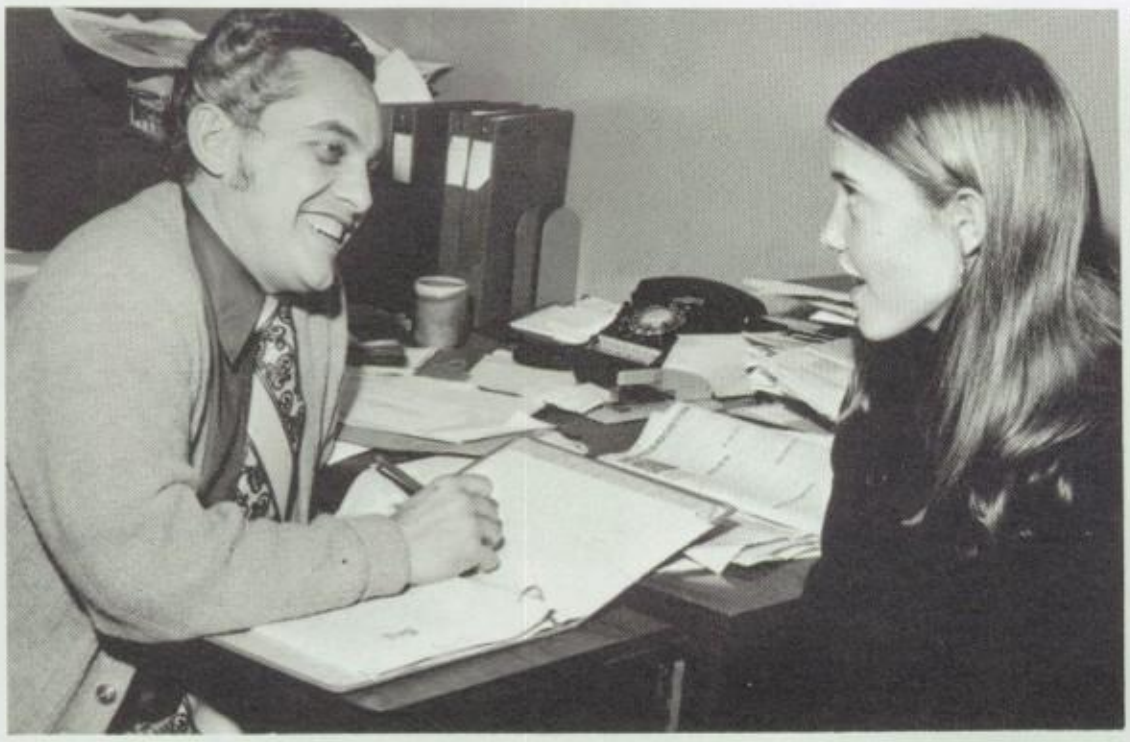
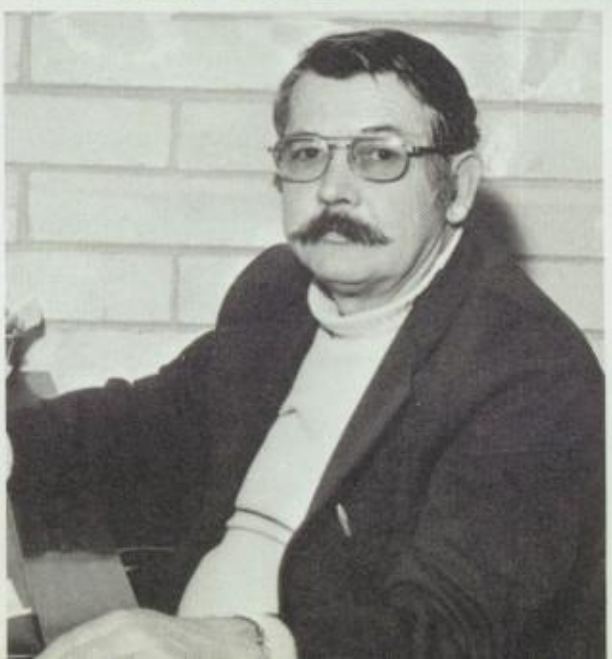
Foothill's counselors had quite a bit to put up with this year because of the change in the registration process and the many ensueing problems. Of course they had the regular amount of personal and academic problems as well. Our counselors for 1974-75 were (Top left) Warren Popp, Senior counselor; (Top Right) Keith Gittins, Sophomore counselor; (Bottom Left) Harvey Dynn, Junior counselor; (Bottom Center) Tay Carlile freshman counselor; (Bottom Right) Mrs. Florence Tamm, Secretary of the counseling office.





All the 'Principal's' Men . . .
(and Woman)

With an all star cast of our principal Mr. "Dick" Kollenborn, Kollenborn with his associates below, Mr. Richard Costello, former Spanish teacher now a human relations counselor. Center Mrs. Eva Hutchison, girls vice-principal. And finally Mr. Reino J. Dalben, boys vice-principal.

COUNSELING AND OFFICE AIDES

The counselling office, which is a new addition to Foothill as of last year, has been quite handy. Have you been seeing an unfamiliar face behind the front desk in there? Well, that is Mrs. Tamm, our full time secretary. The counselling office has served two main purposes, a place to go for schedule changes and personal counselling. The people pictured below and in the lower left are aides of the office or the counselling office. Pictured lower right are some of Foothill's students awaiting personal attention.

Nothing But The Best

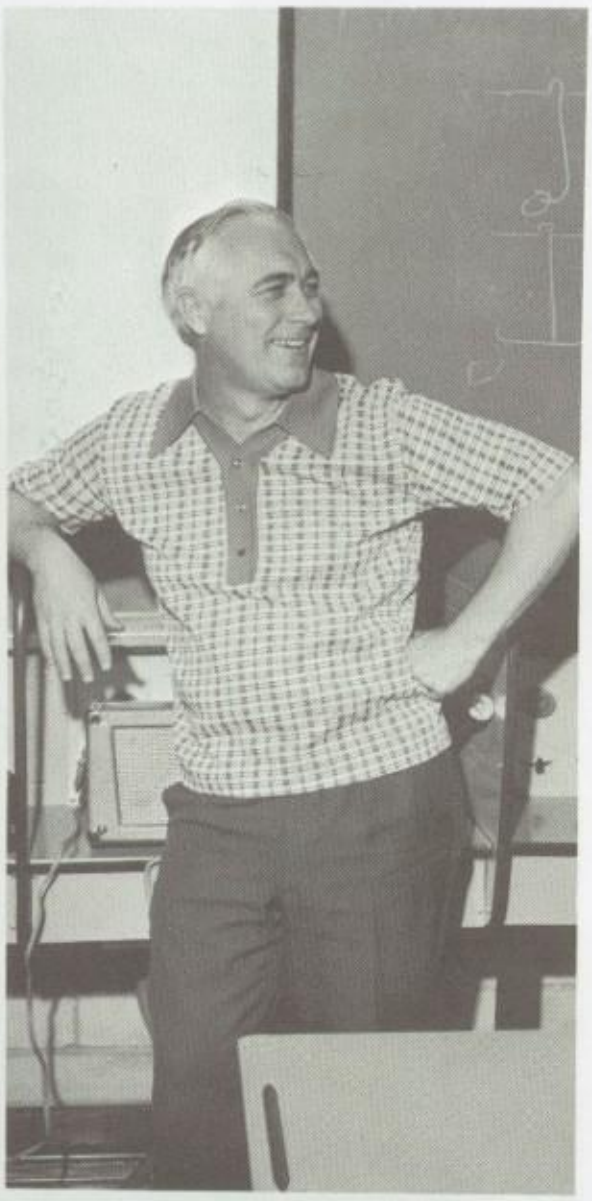
To the right is the Astronomy Club. This group of star-gazing wonders is the pet project of Mrs. Thora Hess, one of Foothill's illustrious Chem. Teachers.

"The Foreign Connection"



Foothill's foreign language department had a welcome addition to its staff this year; Ms. Crites (bottom left). Mr. Costello, who previously held her job as a Spanish teacher, is now in charge of the human relationss department. Ms. Cohen--French, Spanish; and Mr. Essert--German, have successfully worked with Mr. Essert, the department head, to bring variety into students' lives.

Front Page

Hoofbeats seemed to take its cue from the national and international press corps this year. What with Watergate, the Nixon Tapes, and Senators in the Tidal Basin, reporting took on a new face of open-ness. Likewise with Hoofbeats. The pages were filled with painful Headlines and stories of student apathy, losing sports scores, and fights over G.A.A. The staff of Hoofbeats shown above is, back row L-R Robert Schneider, Dave Purdy, Robin Gaskins, John Warren, Brenda Lewis, Michele Jergens, Kathy Clifford, Dennis Weber, Tammy Yarnell, Joyce Lodwig, Katy Lyon, Wayne Milton, Christy Hemness, Donna Collier, Sitting L-R are Sabra Speegle, Jim Thompson, Wayne Lee, Kevin Painter, and Greg Stevenson.

Dona Spataro, left, and Carol Franchi, alias Miss Carol O'Neill, above, were absent on the day Equi's Photographer was here, but we caught them a few days later.

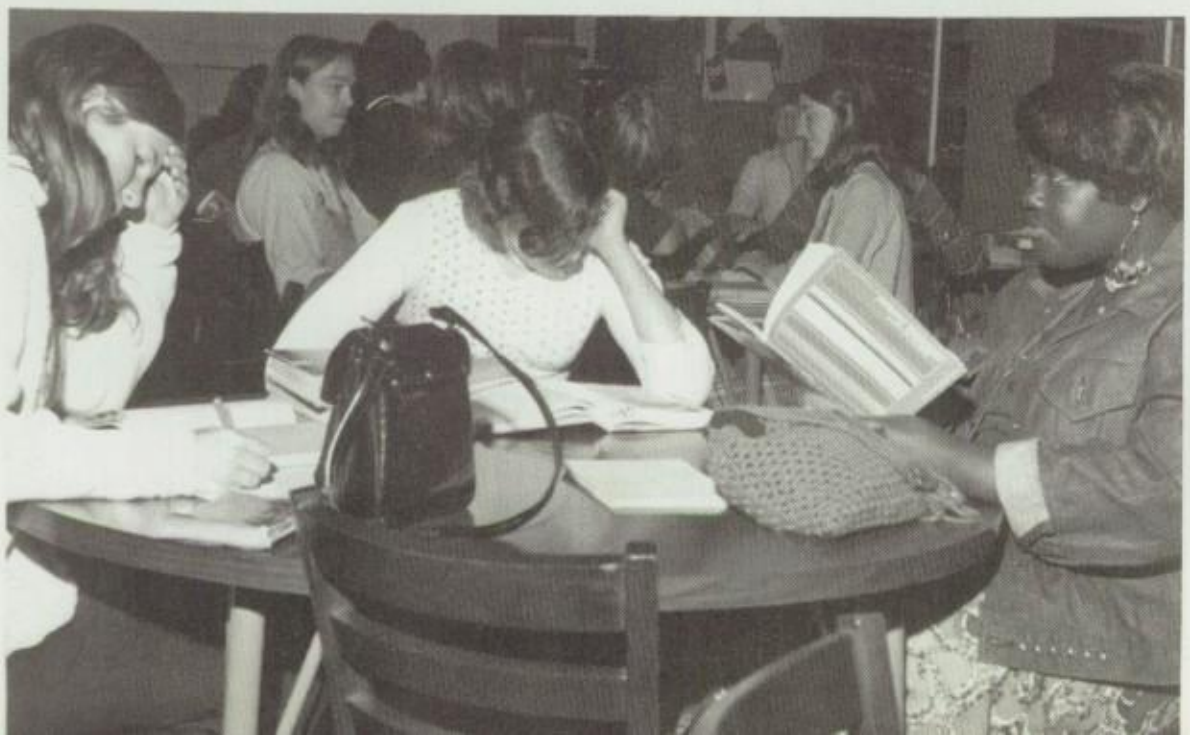
"Quiet On The Western Front"

Starring the illustrious Ms. Jeaniece Ackroyd. Center pictures her hard working aides who keep the library in smooth running condition with the help of the new library cards. Below, are students who make this building what it is today, a learning centre.



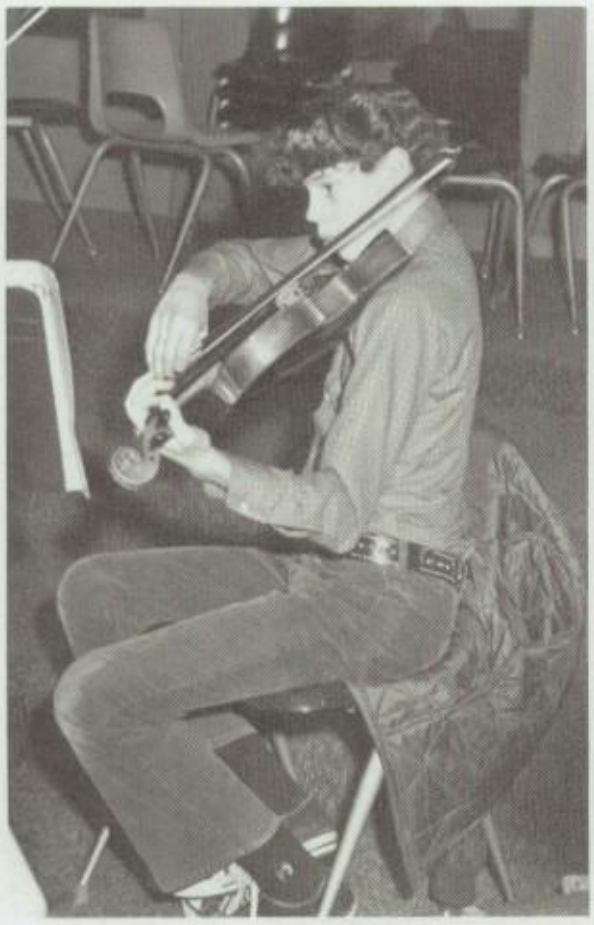
THE BOOKIES

Taking down numbers, fixing colored beads onto cards, and computing the odds of Ms. Ackroyd being sick; these are a few duties of a library aid.

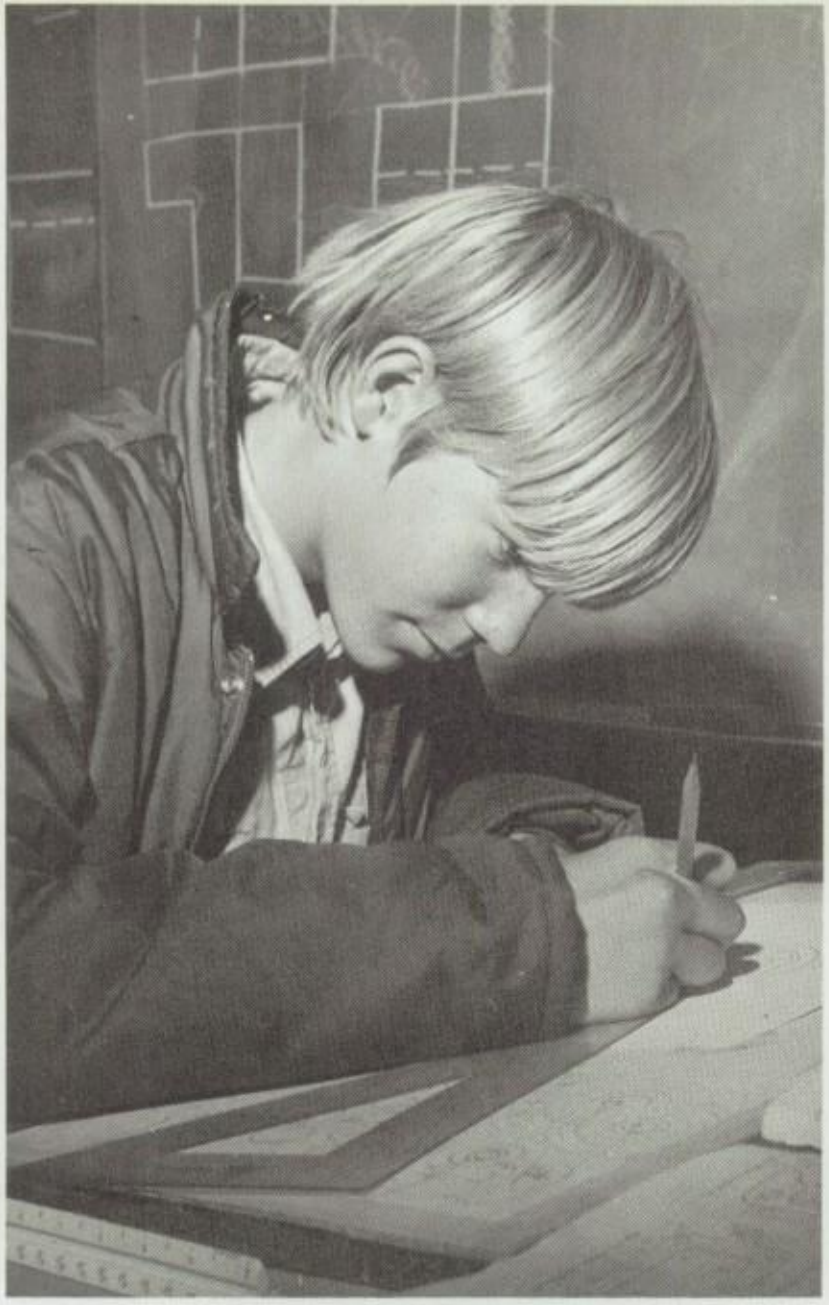
That is until Mr. Ackroyd appears and says, "You'd better get to work!" Then a sudden burst of activity is shown as the library aid (who missed an A by "this" much) scurries away to make sure all of the chairs are in the right place.

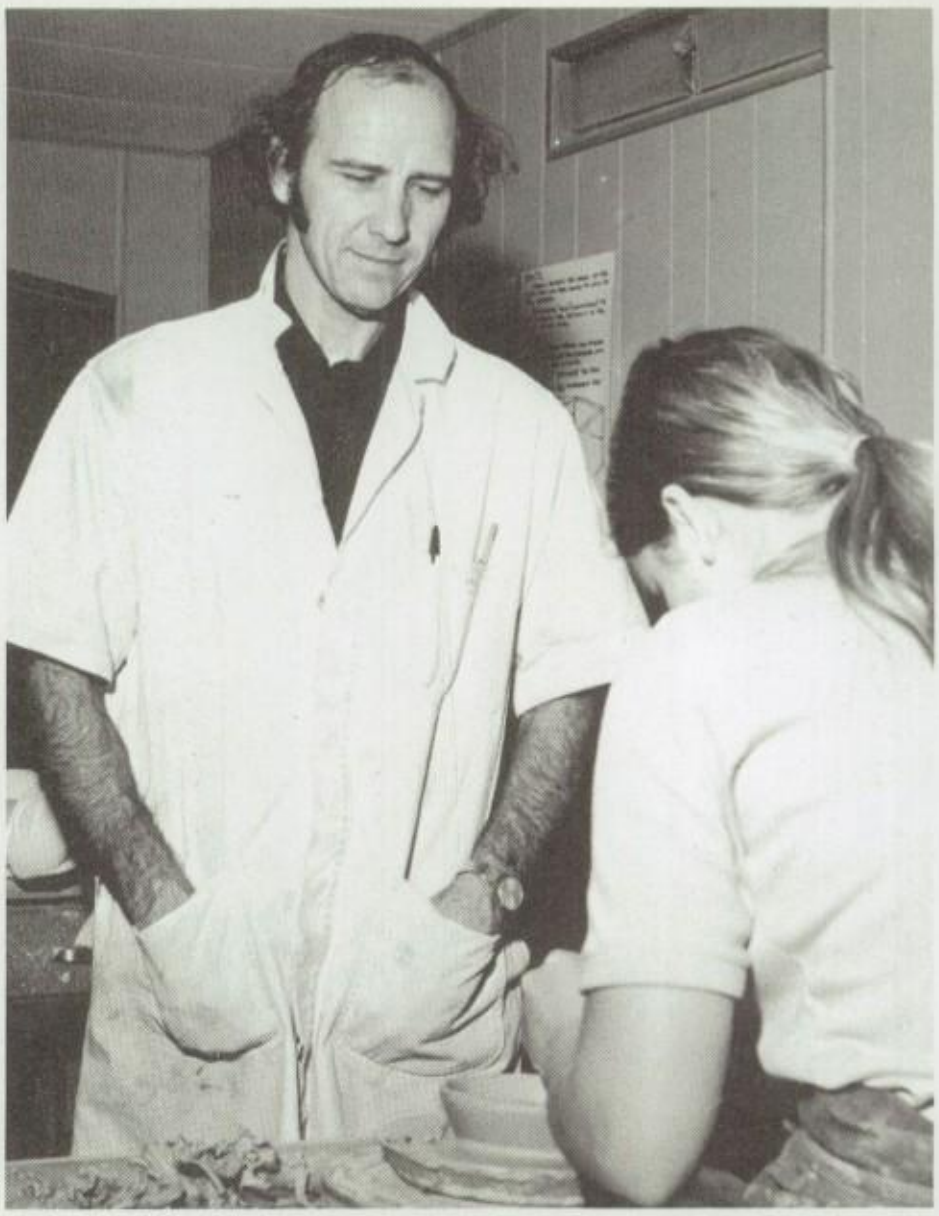
In their honor Equi presents all of those devilishly accurate bookies—-who cause our library to run so smoothly?

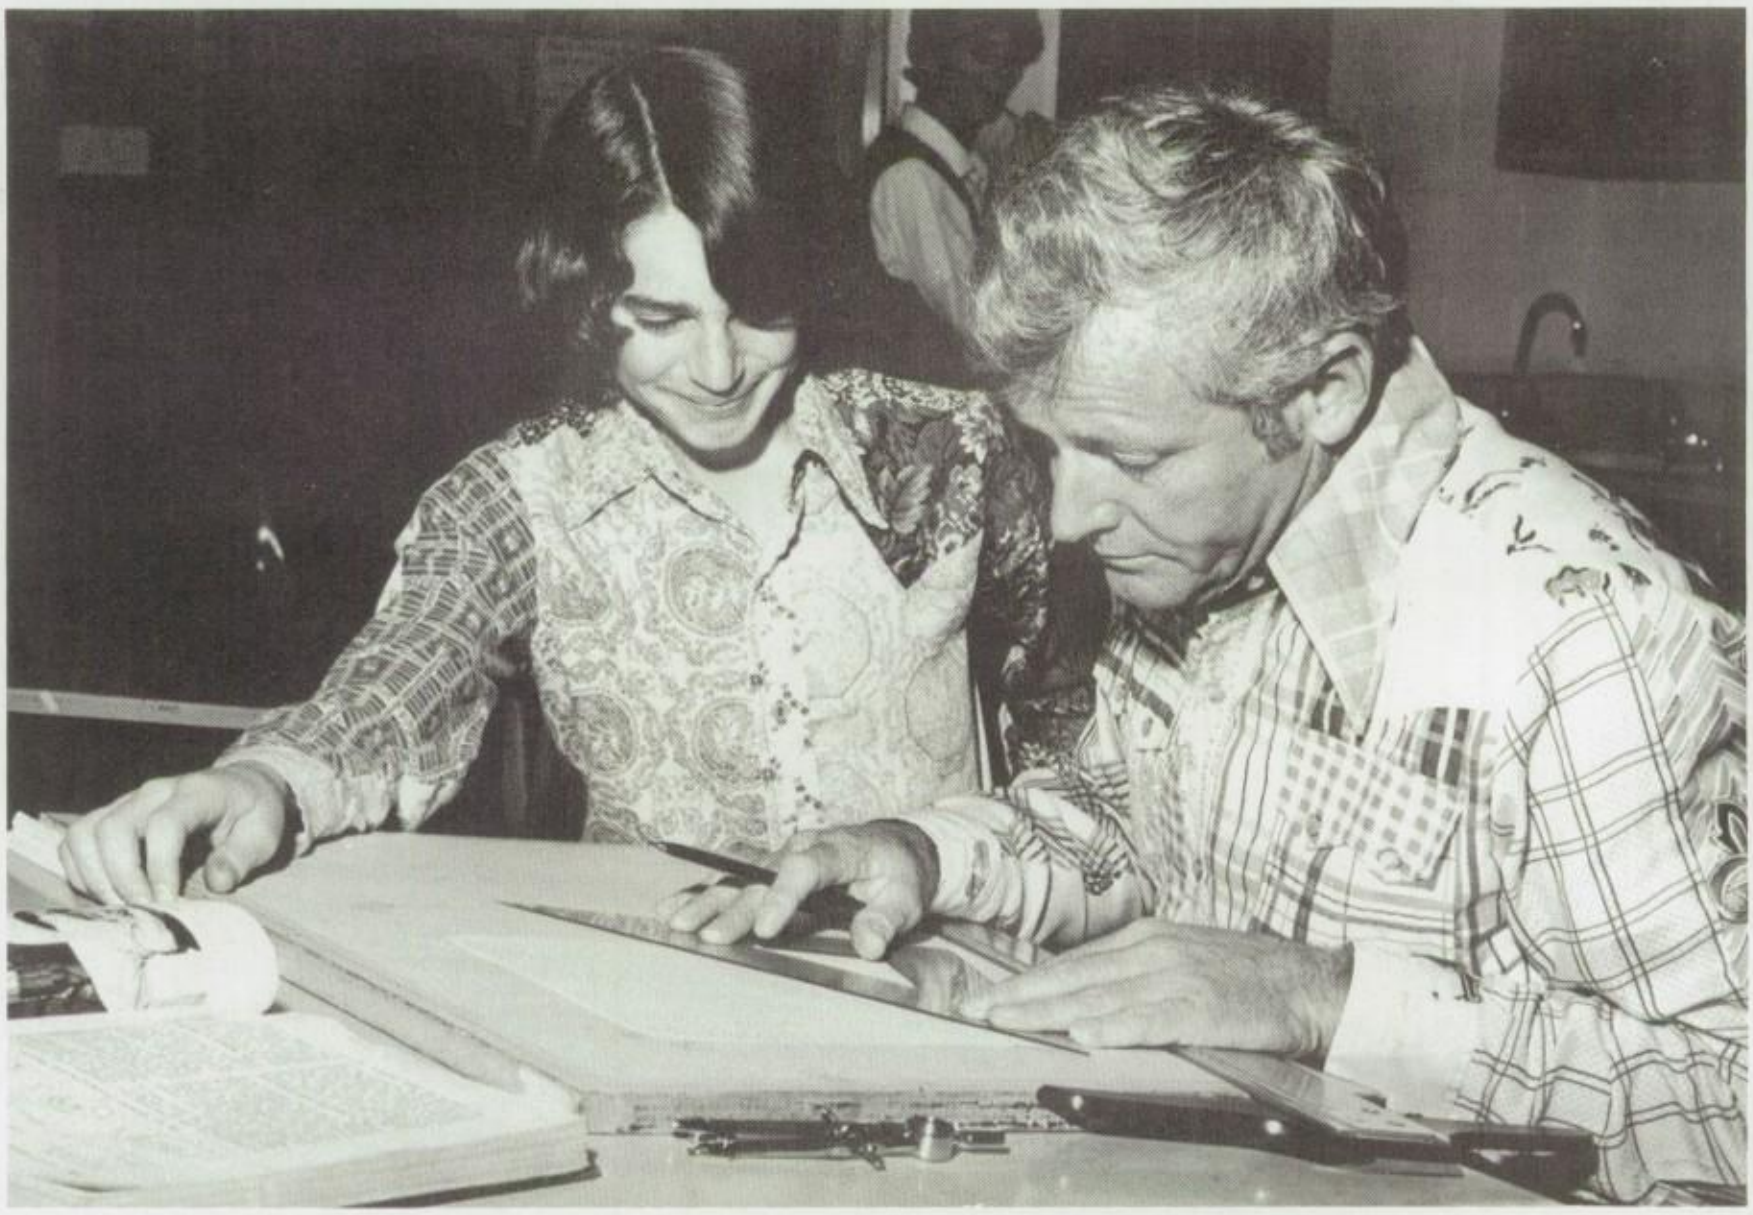
THE MUSIC MEN



John Philipp Sousa would be proud of Monroe De Jarnette and Sam Kamilos. Mr. De Jarnette has skillfully trained a few fabulous "Foothillites" to cause their instruments to emit lilty notes. And from the gossip Equi staff has heard everybody in Concert Orchestra, Cadet Orchestra, and Readin', Writin', and Rhythm should be exalted in their accomplishments.







"The Greatest Show On Earth"

season record for most yards rushing was broken for the second year in a row when Phil Dubose shattered Brian Anderson's old record of 771 yards by racking up 1016 yards of his own. Foothill lost only to Grant and Norte. Coach Frank Negri said, "We worked hard to beat Yuba and came back with an all out effort against Grant. When we lost to them the team faced a mental letdown which in turn gave the advantage to Norte." In Coach Negri's opinion the outstanding players were Phil Dubose and Steve Edwards. Most improved player was Grady Manly scoring three touchdowns. Superior blocking came from Ray Belnap, Randy Lewis, & Jerry Hamburg. Spectacular interceptions were made by Joe Panora, Dwayne Ginn, Jeff Watson, Randy Lewis, Phil Dubose. Exceptional juniors were Craig Little, Mark Helms, and Jeff Reynolds.

The J.V. football team, combining a well-disciplined running game with a deadly aerial attack, stormed their way to a season record of 7-2. Unfortunately, the two losses were league games so the team finished in third place.

The gridders had good depth and relied heavily on the talents of Pete Juarros and Pat Tobin, (who kicked the longest field goal in the city this year.) The key to the Mustangs success was not only the pounding offense, but their tenacious defense.

We look forward to seeing everyone on the Varsity next year. They will definitely be top contenders.

CROSS COUNTRY

Cross-Country is one of the toughest, most grueling sports this school has to offer. It not only calls for speed and endurance, but a special ability to handle the rough terrain of many different courses. Just ask any seasoned runner about "Heartbreak Hill".

This year the team had one of it's best seasons ever. The Varsity finished in second place behind perenial league champion Highlands. The J.V. took fourth place and the Sophomores finished first, going undefeated.

With only four Varsity lettermen graduating, and many fine prospects coming up from the Juniors and Sophomores, next year looks even more promising.

Middle row, Scott tries to get the ball from the opponents. Coach gives the strategy at time out. Although the team had a disappointing season there was one standout, Marshall Franklin.

Sophs . . . Near Champs

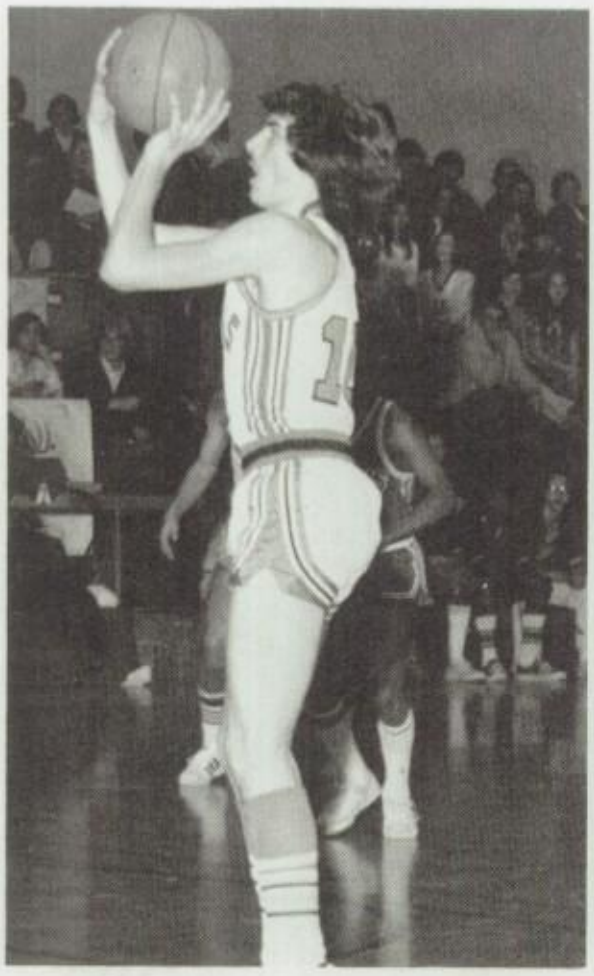
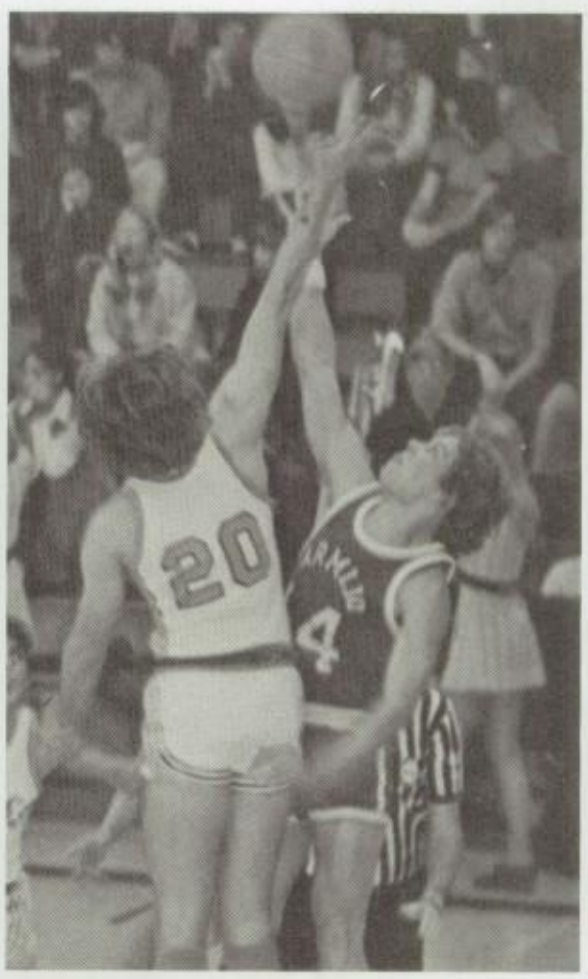
HARD SEASON

Upper left, Marvin Gale dribbles down court. In the two middle pictures, Kevin Taylor shoots a foul shot, and Pat Tobin is up for two. In the above picture Marvin Gale is shooting from the line. Far left pictures, Amador Tugadi jumps for the ball as Miles Newton looks on. Marvin Gale attempts two for the Mustangs. Near left, John Trehan is at the foul line and Micke Brown gets set for defense. This year's J.V. had quite a few juniors on the team. Dispite the player's and Coach Strickland's efforts, the win-lose record was disappointing.

Fell Short





Upper left Kent Shook shoots the ball. Upper middle Steve Edwards jumps high for the tip-off. Upper right Rich Roberts outjumps his opponent. Middle row Kent Shook dribbles downcourt. Coming from behind against Highlands, but falling short by 2 points in the final seconds is similar to how the season went, but the FUTURE does look bright with this years Juniors and Sophomores.

Hockey Corners

The excitement and speed of Foothill's Hockey team was never marred by 3 wins, 2 losses & 1 tie. The '74 season was full of new upstarts partially due to the GAA switching to CIF, which meant the girls could only choose from one of three sports this season for participation. Flashing across the field were scoring forewards K. Bunker, L. Estel, K. Bernatchy, L. McClave, K. Drake, D. Anuszewski, P. Mushrim. Strong defensive support came from halfbacks and fullbacks P. McElroy, J. Wukasinovich, Kim Bernatchy, R. Baird (scoring HB), D. Ornoski, M. Baird, C. Heale and goalie was Kim Parrish.

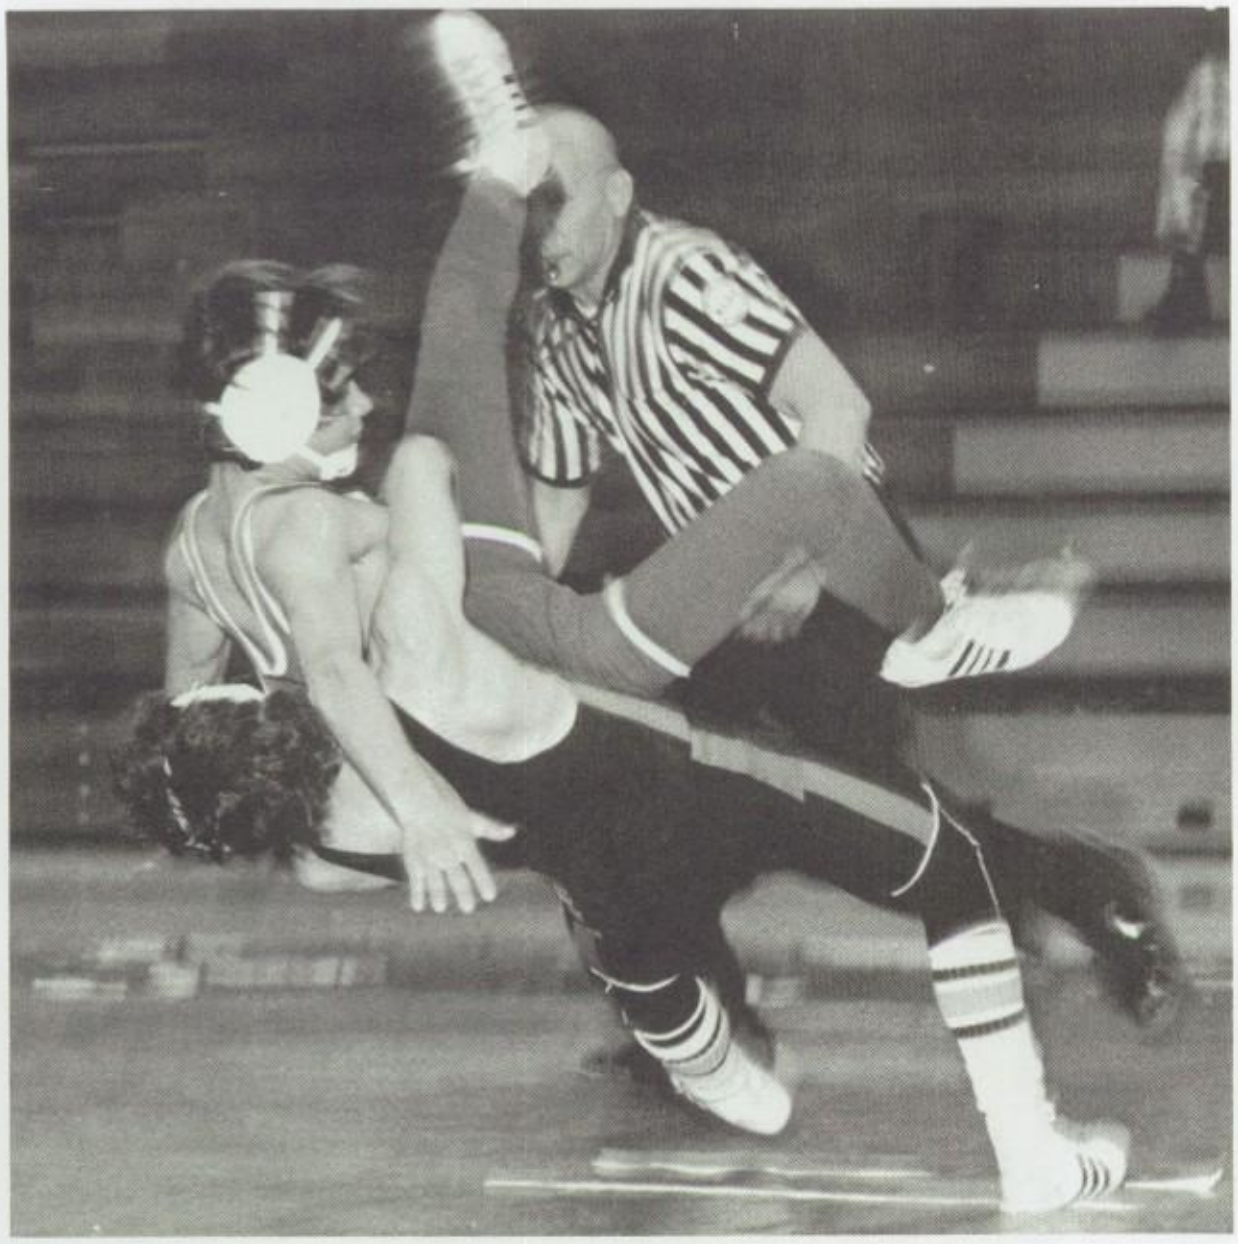
Big Time Wrestling



The wrestling year proved to be a success as the Mustangs exhibited an outstanding 8-1 record. The season was led by Steve Croisetierre and Sonny Steuart both taking firsts in the Stagg Invitational. Steve Croisetierre and John Stapp took firsts in the Wheatland Invitational while Russ Wilcox and Dave LaRusso were right behind them with seconds. Foothill wrestlers demonstrated great skill, ability, and individual effort and the team deserved their first place finish.

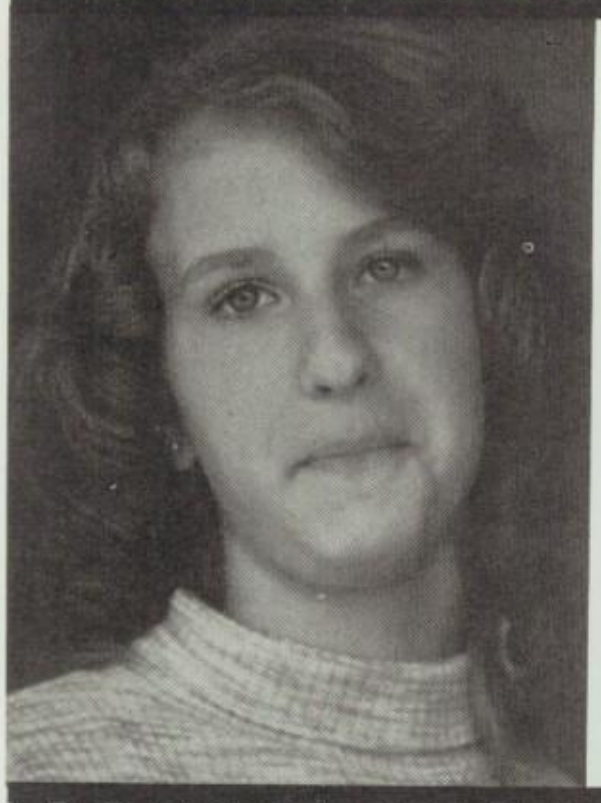
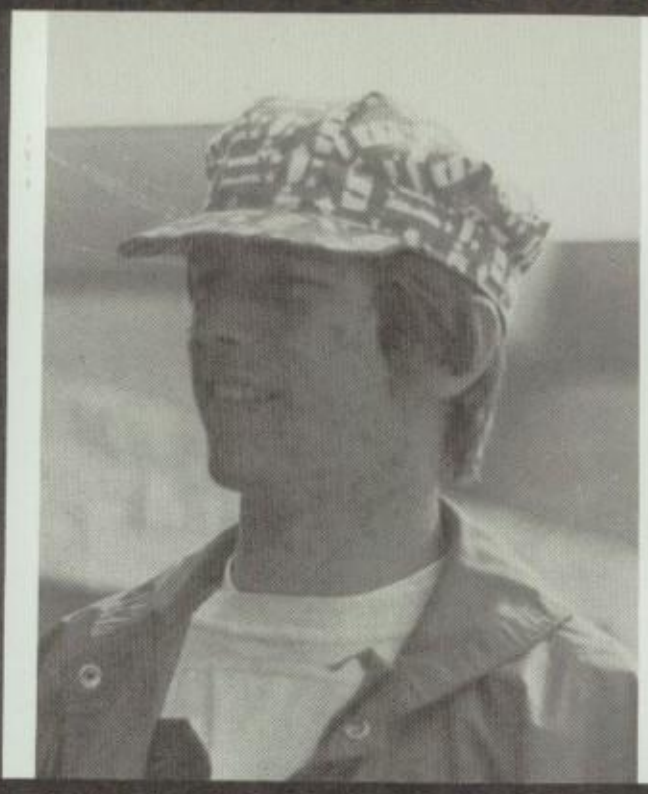
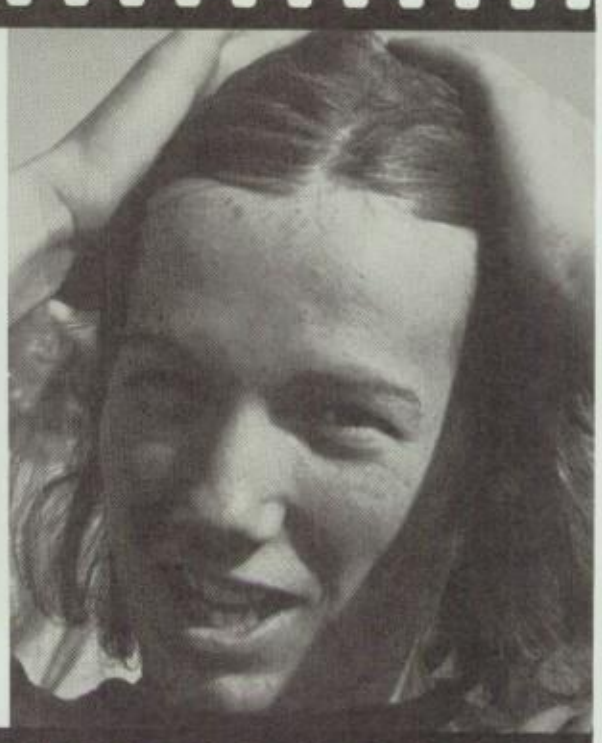
Class Of '78 Starts Off Year With Show Of Enthusiasm







This year's sophomores have certainly proved to be an outstanding class. The class of '77 showed much enthusiasm and skill while working on class activities and fund raising events. Dispite the fact that the twelve foot high soda was destroyed, Homecoming was still a success. In the fall the class was led by Terry Mott, pres; Heidi Owens, vice pres; Lee Ann Jensen, tres; Kathy Stewart, sec. Class representatives were Scott Henrikson, Joe Spier, and Carla Buffington.

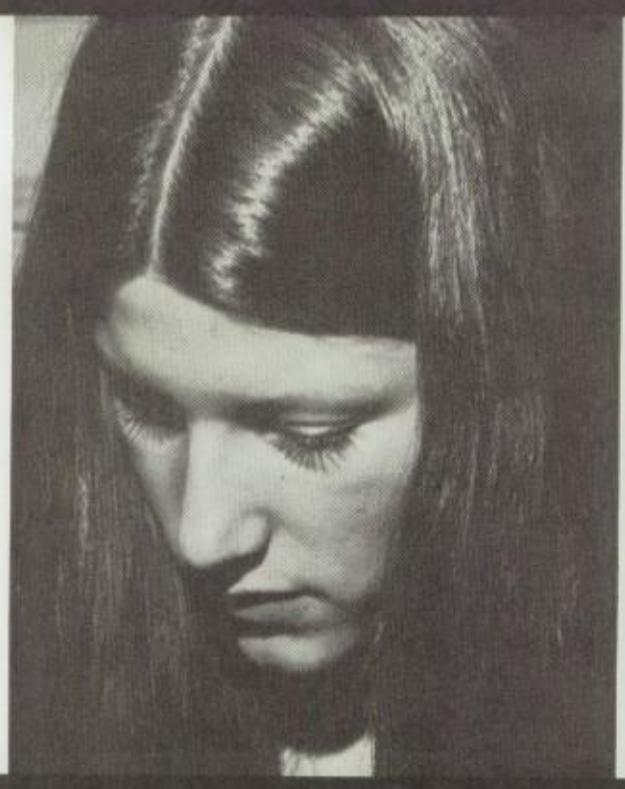
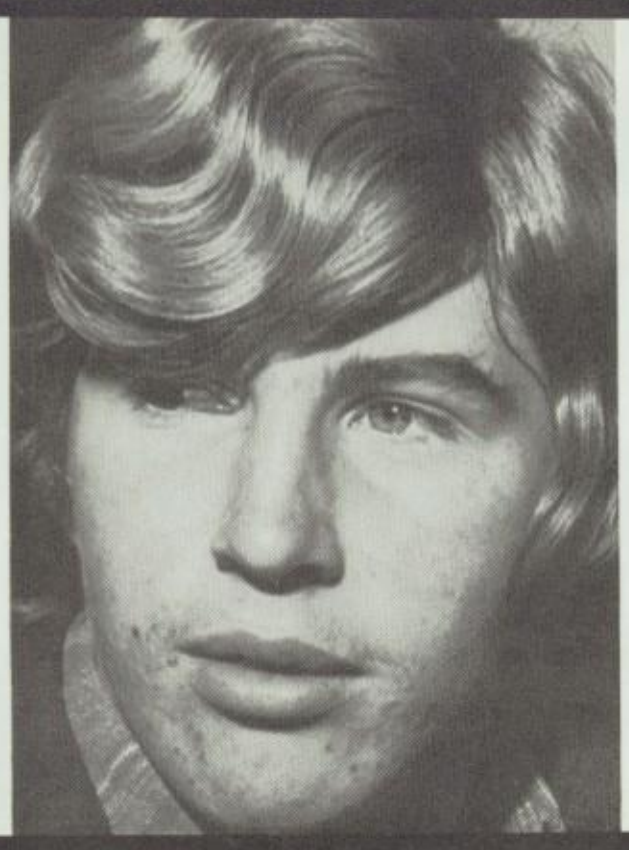
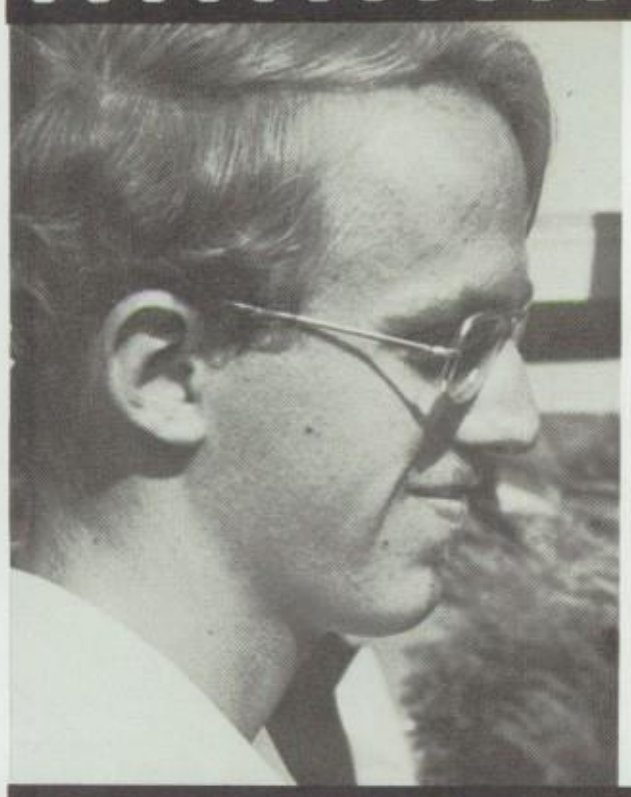
Spirit of '76 is at its all time high. Winning the homecoming trophy and the efforts of organizing the Jr. Prom is just a sample of the great participation this class has.

Class officers are: Pres. Barbra Elliot, Vice Pres. Mark Jewell, Secretary Cathy Rogers, Treasurer Peggy McElroy, Class Rep. Cheri Van Dyke— all responsible leaders.

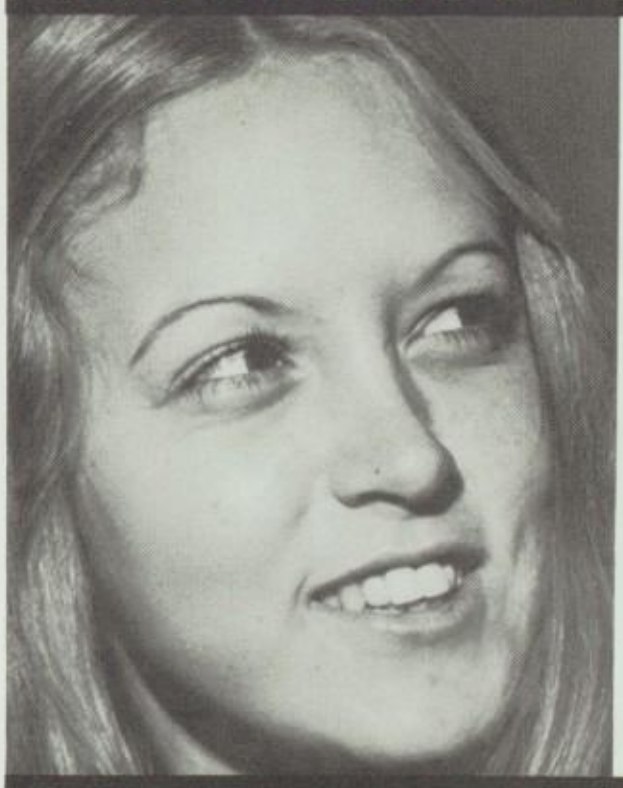
With these qualities, the Class of '76 is ready to grad.







JUNIORS



Fiddler On The Roof

Tradition! Tradition! For the past five years each successive class has found that becoming involved with school activities is not worthwhile--this sophomore class is not different. A few interested students run for office and are elected by about thirteen percent of the student body. It is a shame that in this age of doing one's own thing so many individuals are afraid to run for a student office because they might not succeed. Or if it because they are fiddlin' around?

Equi staff proudly presents the fall and spring sophomore class officers. We salute their courage in running for office and trying to alleviate Foothill's rampant apathy.

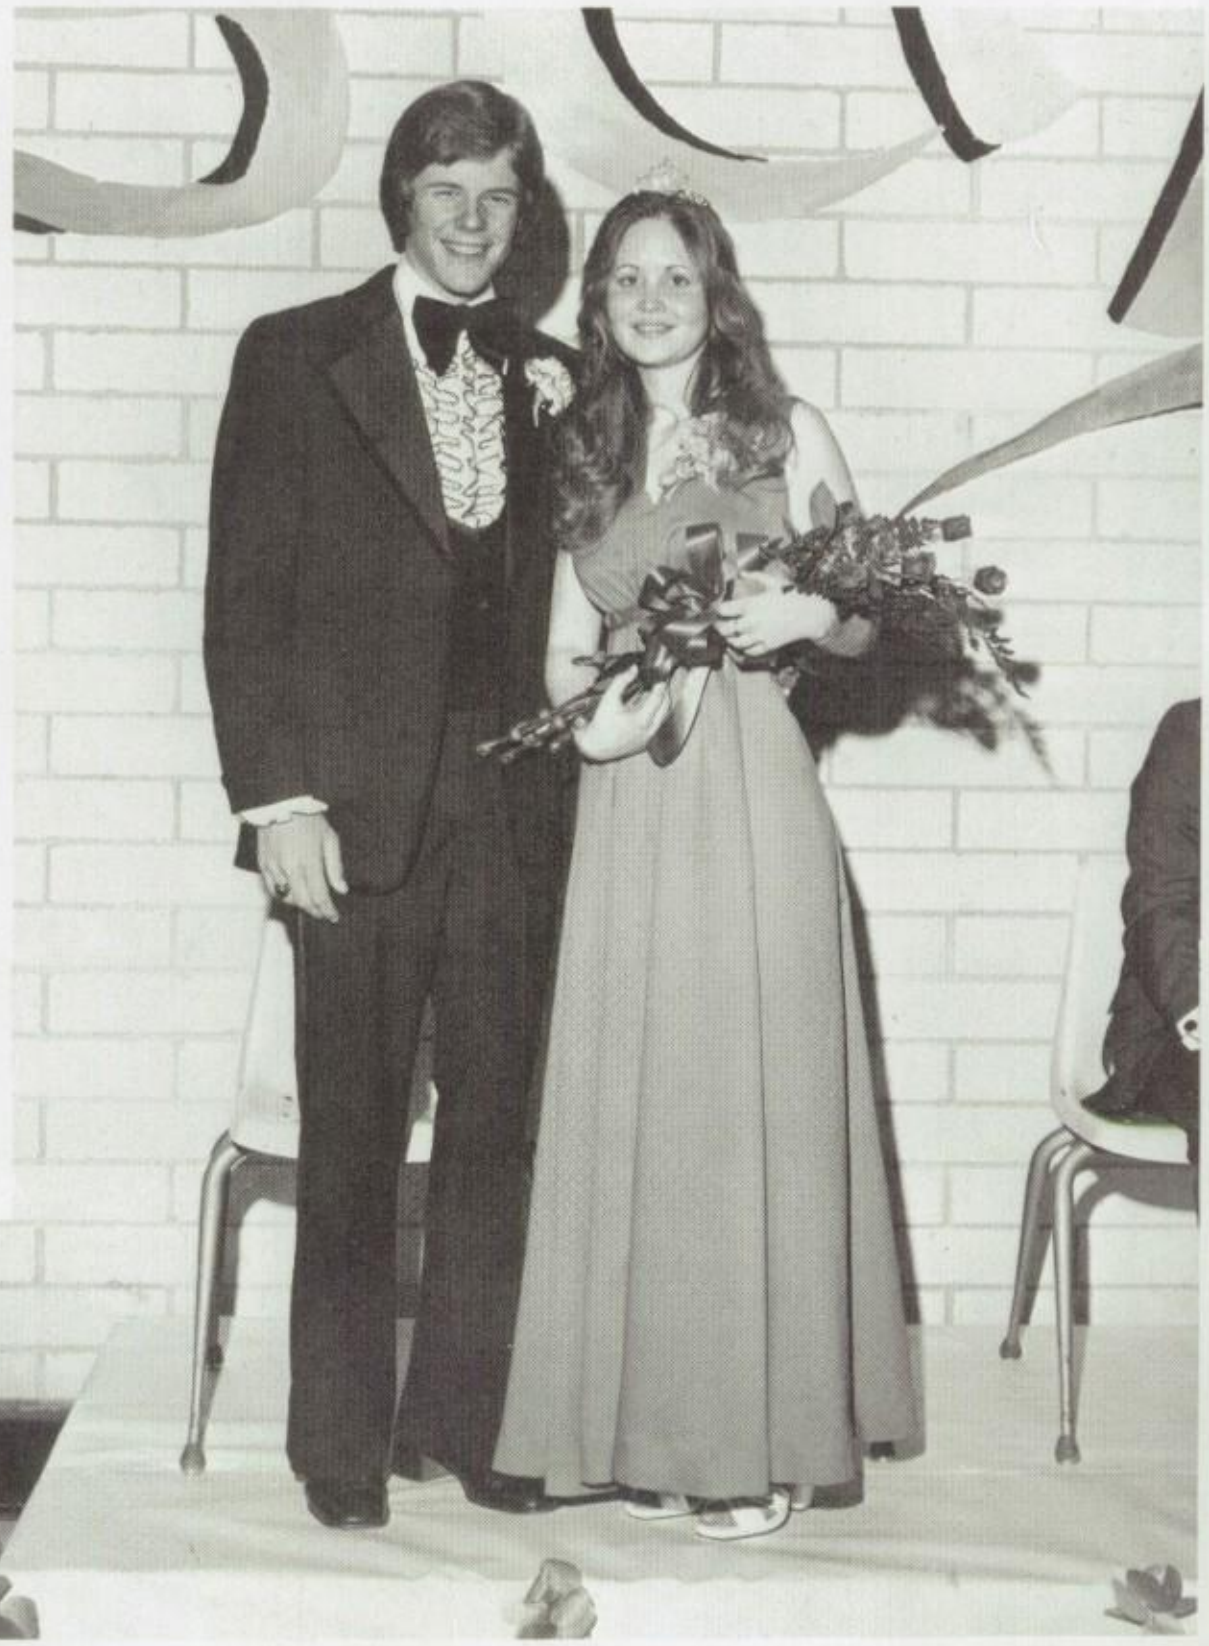
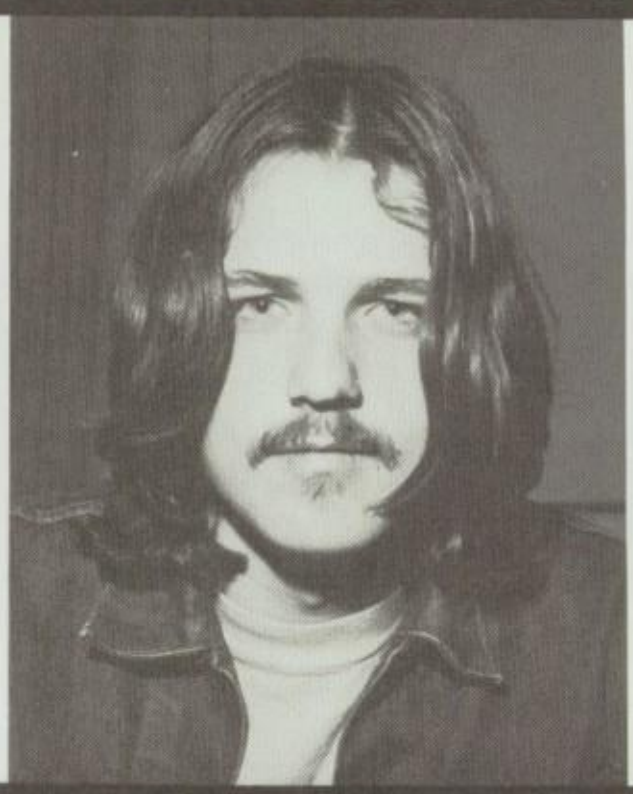
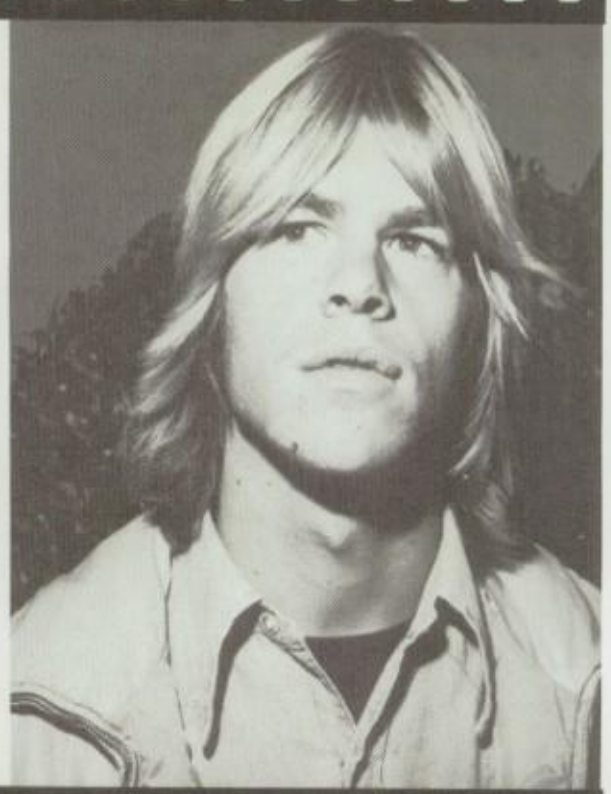
JUNIORS
OUR WORLD AND WELCOME TO IT

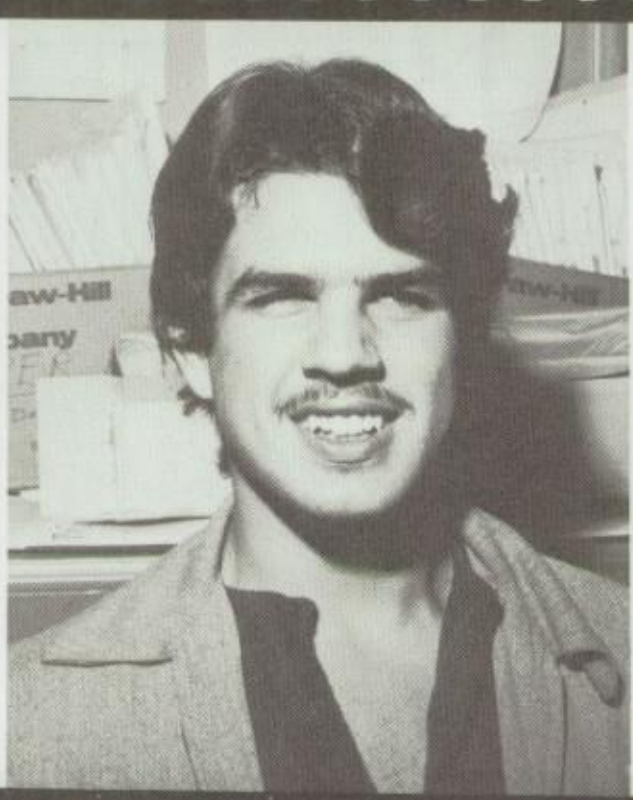
The 1975 Jr. Prom was highlighted by the crowning of Alvie Stephenson King & Gail Rodell Queen. Colour My World was the exciting theme. The royalty on this & the next page are: Dana Hartney & Dave Galvin, Liz Ragan & - Dale Hudec, Gail Rodell & Jeff Reynolds, Wendy Miller & Mark Jewell, Bonnie Woodard & Alvie Stephenson, Pam Sylvestre & Rick Arnold.

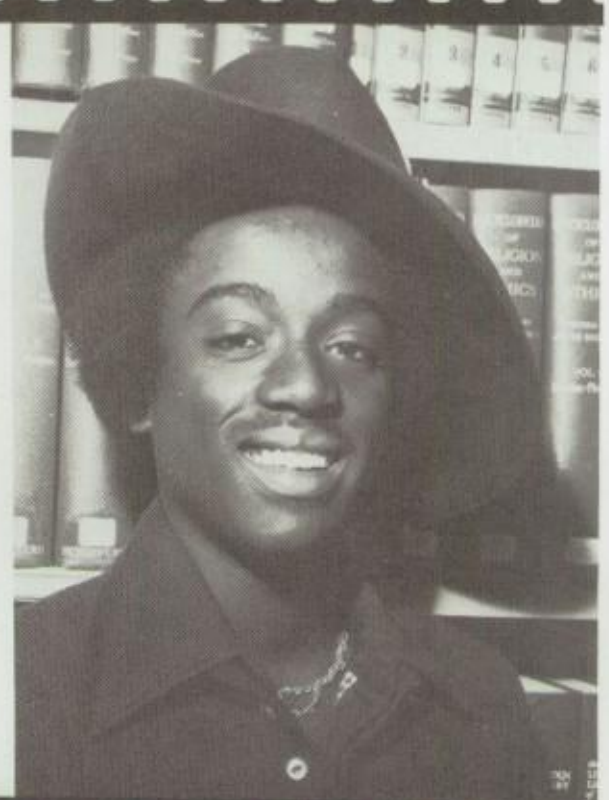
To the right, Miles Newton and Tina Orr, and Esther Lancaster and Rollin Rhodes make a good dance better.

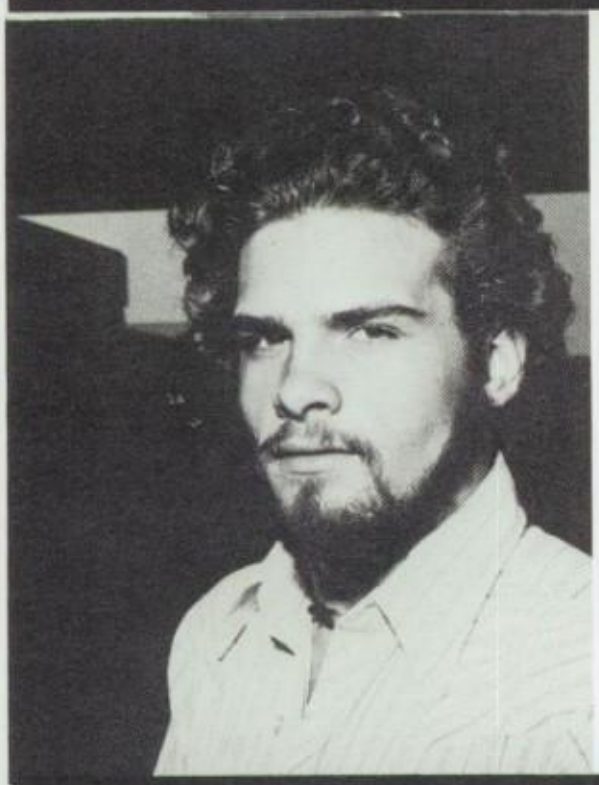




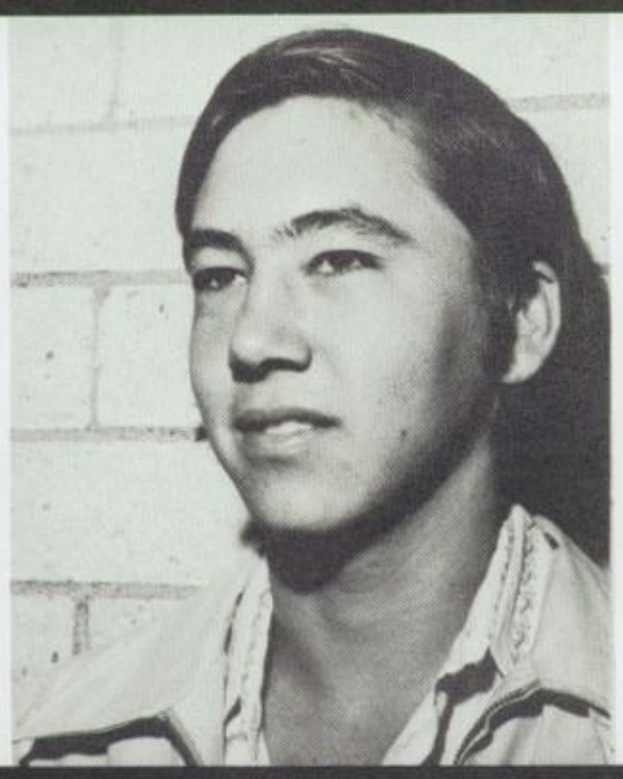




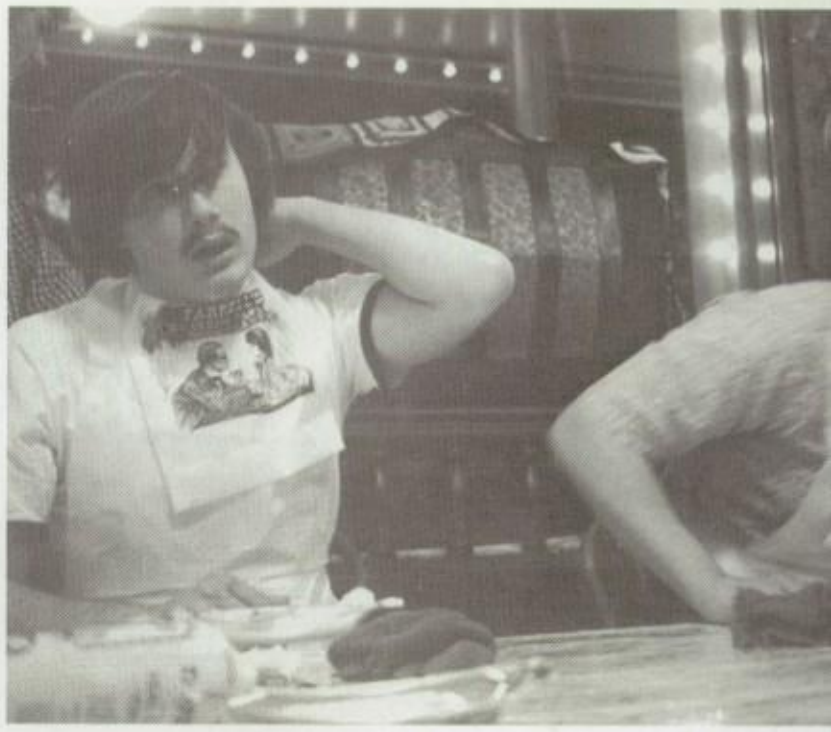




SENIORS



Senior Citizens



romp around Foothill wishing they were someone they aren't and doing their best to be, "Myself."

In the top right Mike Jones pauses momentarily while glurping down a banana split at a Farrells ice cream eat off against the chicken farmers.

Below is a caricature of the greatly respected Wayne Lee drawn by our glamour girl Marian Marks.

The main body of the pictures on this page consists of Linda Medlin, Dave Purdy, Dean Baker, Joe Chiodo, Kathy Drake, and Rich Williamson who are all Senior Class Officers.

THE CLUB WITH SWING

THE

GRADUATE(S)

WHAT SEEMS TO BE THE END IS ONLY THE BEGINNING
